The Headmaster's Message

Yet another year has come and gone and it is time for the Class of '07 to say goodbye and begin their next chapter of life after St. Andrew's. If we have done our job right, we have helped shape and mold you into complete men and well-rounded citizens. It is our hope you will remember your time here with fond memories and practice what you learned at university, and in life – with courage and integrity.

The pace of life is swift around here and once again we managed to pack a lot of impressive accomplishments and activity into our school year – starting off with one of our most ambitious efforts ever – the International Independent Schools' Public Speaking Competition (IISPSC). As the proud hosts of this 25th Annual event – we welcomed 156 students from 44 different schools representing 7 different countries. Our own team did exceptionally well with grade 10 student Ryan Cole and teammate Stewart Powell capturing 2nd place overall in the Cross-Examination category, and Ryan going on to represent St. Andrew's and Canada in South Africa, at the World Championships in April.

Head of Drama, William Scoular dazzled us once again in November with a tremendous performance of "Cabaret", which rivaled the version Jane and I saw in London earlier in the month. St. Andrew's Festival of the Arts, and Cadets in Concert went on to bring the house down in February, with Drum Fanfare being one of the many highlights. Once again, S.A.C. stole the show at the CISMF performance at Roy Thomson Hall in April. And the 102nd Cadet Inspection was a spectacle to behold - those of you who led your peers did so with honour and pride. Not to be overlooked, the competition for the Headmaster's Art Award was one of the fiercest in recent memory, with Grant Burke and Wes Tiller being selected as co-winners.

Spirits soared on the ice, slopes, squash courts and lacrosse fields as the 1st Hockey team won the MacPherson Cup, the CISAA Championships and the Mid West Prep League (MPHL) Championship; the Alpine Ski team won the CISAA and OFSAA Championships (Level 1 and 2) – OFSAA for the fifth year in a row; the 1st Squash team captured gold at CISAA; and the 1st Lacrosse team finished the year as CISAA and OFSAA Champions.

The theme of the year was Courage in honour of Ms. Clare Kowaltschuk's courageous battle against breast cancer. Two other members of the Andrean family exhibited great courage this spring when tragedy struck at a dance in Bedard Gymnasium: Veronica Tiller, sister of Wes, and faculty member Fraser Cowell. Thanks to Fraser's quick and professional response and Veronica's strong will and determination, Veronica has made a miraculous recovery. The students also exhibited incredible courage and quick thinking that evening – for which we are all grateful. You also exhibited courage on numerous other occasions throughout the year, whether it was in the classroom, on the playing fields, on the stage, fundraising for cancer research, the summer trip to Ecuador, or just standing up for what is right.

As I said, the pace of life is swift at St. Andrew's, and we won't stop running until the 108th Prize Day. You boys have once again impressed me in your efforts to embrace everything this place has to offer. Whether you are acting in a FOCUS play, making the winning kick in a rugby game, or performing on Pipes & Drums before 20,000 spectators at a Toronto FC game (or all of the above in a 24 hour period – Jon Tozzi!) – You have truly achieved the status of an Andrean.

Thank you, to all the boys who spent countless hours shooting photos, writing text, and designing layout in order to deliver this edition of The Review celebrating the 2006/2007 school year. On behalf of your teachers, parents and fellow students– you have made us all proud to be part of the Andrean community. Thank you.

The Ladies Guild

The Ladies Guild has done an incredible amount of work during the year to ensure that each student, especially the grads, understands how special S.A.C. is and how quickly the years can pass by. Among the highlights of the year were guest speaker David Chilton, author of The Wealthy Barber, who spoke to the graduates at a luncheon. Additionally, the Ladies' guild work on formalized events for parents, such as dances and auctions, was invaluable. As always, their care, hard work, and dedication to the school and its students is one of the many reasons why St. Andrew's College will never be just an ordinary place.

The hard work, encouragement, and organization of the '06-'07 Prefects was palpable. One of the strongest group of student leaders in this or any year, the Prefects fostered school spirit and helped to ensure that the pace of school life was just right. The numerous events which they organized; ranging from decorating the entire Gallery in a Halloween theme, to organizing some of the best dances the school has ever seen; spoke volumes to the character and initiative of the entire group. They have met and exceeded all possible expectations placed on them, and raised the bar higher for next year and for many years yet to come.

Upper School Winner
Stefan Noel

On October 5th, 2006 the 103rd annual cross country run was held and became very competitive throughout the school. The run is a very old tradition that the school has carried on for over 100 years. An immense amount of effort was shown by all competitors throughout the race, however, this year there was a new leader in town. Stefan Noel, a grade 11 student, took off to an early lead followed closely by other past champions. It was clear that he had been training for this event for the past few weeks. For the middle school, Danny McConnell also got off to a great start. Despite valiant attempts by other racers to overtaking these two leaders, Stefan and Danny kept going strong to come away with this year's cross country, run scoring massive amounts of points for their house clans.

This year, St. Andrew's College had the honour of hosting the 25th annual IISPSC. The public speaking competetion included over 50 different schools from across the globe. Students from all over the world gathered here, at St. Andrew's, to compete for the title of the most prestigious event of its kind. The competition was taken seriously by every single contestant and every single member of St. Andrew's, thus making the event a huge success. Not only did students come to take part in public speaking and debating, but also had a chance to relax and have some fun with dances and other nightly events.

One of the greatest musicals of all time, Cabaret not only boasts some of the best songs ever heard on Broadway, it also has a compelling and highly political storyline with a message from history that can't be ignored. Set in the decadent Berlin of the early 1930s during the uninhibited era of the Weimar Republic, it sets the rise of the Nazis against the apathy of the masses, and describes a wind of change that would have terrifying consequences for all. This play features the extraordinary Carly Street, a star of The Lord of the Rings. Ryan Cole appeared in the coveted role of the Emcee and Cliff and Herr Schultz are played by Colin Murphy and Adam Salomon. Cabaret was a big success that took place in the 3 nights in November.

First...I want to thank the following people who work tirelessly behind the scene to provide the football program with so many things... Thank you to Mr. Manning, Mr. Reid, Mrs. Bedard, the kitchen staff and the grounds crew.

Next...Daniel Adamo who volunteered to do our film work and spent countless hours filming both practices and games; film that helped to give us a competitive edge over most opponents. Thank you, Daniel.

One individual whose short term mid-season absence caused great pain, literally, for many of the players, thankfully then returned to great joy and celebration because the players recognize her incredible professionalism and care...she goes by one name and one name only... our Athletic Therapist....Marnie Gift. Finally, I want to thank my coaching staff... Mr. Rayne who joined us mid-season, Mr. Gurr, Mr. Kitagawa and Mr. Shields. There is no harder working group of high school football coaches in this province. Their commitment to the players ... to see them be successful in football and more importantly in life, is inspirational. I thank them for their friendship and all of the countless hours they put in to making the football program great.

During the season, and most particularly in the final few weeks, I used the terms "The Andrean Spirit"..."The Brotherhood of Andreans" to describe the relationship that our players had with one another. If you are sitting in the audience and are unsure what "Andrean Spirit" or "Brotherhood of Andreans" means, I couldn't possibly describe for you what those feelings are; they have to be lived. At the conclusion of the championship game, I shook hands with and hugged every graduating player. As I moved down the line, player to player, I saw three things: the look of pain, the look of great loss and the look of love. The pain I saw was the pain they felt after a tough championship defeat, pain from working so hard and wanting it so much, pain from playing their guts out, only to be disappointed. The loss I saw in their eyes was the loss they felt standing beside their best friends, friends who will always remain friends, a loss of time spent together that is real and devastating. But what I also saw was love...love for the game, love of the opportunity to compete, love for their teammates and friends, and a love of their school and the feeling of "A Brotherhood of Andreans". A love that cannot be felt in very many places. To the graduating players...hold on to those memories forever, come back to campus and remember them, continue to be "Brothers" to one another for the remainder of this year and every year after you move away from this place because memories are one of the single most powerful forces in the world. To the graduating players... I thank you for your pain, your loss and most importantly your love for each other and First Football

U16 FOOTBALL

Our goal every year in U16 Football is to make the CISAA finals. We've not made it there in four years now – but this should have been the year. We won our first league game convincingly: 47-26 over Ridley, but then lost our next two games in squeakers by a total of three points. We then whupped UCC 28-13 – and were tied for 3rd place… and our last game of the regular season was against St. Mikes. Because of the way our league standings ended up this year, our final league game turned out to be irrelevant – win or loose we would end up in 4th and have to play St. Mikes again in the semi-finals.

We had one chance to beat St. Mikes and that was to show them nothing in our final league game and hope we could come out strong and get ahead in the semi-finals. And that is what we tried. It required us to sit the best running back in the U16 league – Morgan Bonner, who scored all but three of our TD's this year. It required us to put together a package of plays that did not give away any of our strengths. It required us to put together a defence that we were not planning to actually use against St. Mikes. It required us to play the bench, and it required us to swallow a lot of pride because St. Mikes knew none of this and kept their 1st string on the field much longer than they needed to, resulting in a 60-0 loss. Sometimes you have to take chances in order to win: we wanted one shot to beat St. Mikes and we were not about to waste that shot in our last league game. It was to come in the semi-finals.

The final score for the Semi-Final game was a respectable 47-20, and while this was a loss, we played an excellent, never-say-die, game of football. It was also the most points any team had scored on St. Mikes this season.
So a big congratulations to all our U16 Football players and best of luck for those who go on to play 1st Football.

1st Soccer

The 1st Soccer team had an excellent season in which they finished 2nd in the league and 5th at Nationals. It was a memorable season in may respects. Please let me share some of the highlights with you: Kyle Bergman tormented an opposing player with a series of stepovers and direction changes to the point that the boy went to one knee and asked to be subbed; Iker Lanzagorta's two blistering goals against King's-Edgehill - sublime strikes that left spectators in awe; the site of Jevon Francis leaping high in the air to head home yet another goal is ; Cameron Tait getting a rare yellow card; Adel Ratansi scoring a goal?!?; Duncan Cole scoring a goal that is in the running for goal of the year; Taylor Walker playing every position on the field over the course of the season; Anthony D'Antonio making his usual brilliant saves; Richard Shouldice Stewart trying to one up D'Antonio and throwing himself at everything in sight; Josh Hanson has blazing speed - challenge him to a race if you don't believe me; Adam Yates almost got swept out to sea at Peggy's Cove by a mini Tsunami. All these graduating players will be sorely missed next year. Their enthusiasm, dedication to the game, and light hearted sense of humour will not be forgotten.

World Cup fever brought out a field of sixty-five players to try out for the Junior Varsity Soccer Team of 2006. The final 18 had certainly earned their place for what was to be one of the most successful seasons the JV team had ever seen. Hard work, motivation and belief in ourselves resulted in an undefeated season. Eight wins, one tie, and zero losses saw our way to first place in the league standings heading into the finals. This team was led by a high powered offence that averaged over four goals per game and stingy defence that made scoring difficult for all our opponents.

Highlights include a come from behind victory over Hillfield on homecoming, a well fought tie in a quagmire at UCC and the various multi-goal games by our high powered offence.

Normally, a season like this ends with a championship, however, despite such a stellar season, we fought our ultimate challenge in a nail biter of a match against Holy Trinity School in the finals. Jockeying for the lead throughout the match HTS found the final scoring opportunity in the 80th minute. Despite every ounce of effort for the last ten minutes from the boys, the final score was HTS 3 – St. Andrew's 2. All was not lost and the team finished the season with a post-season tour to Bermuda, hosted by Saltus School, over the November break. A truly wonderful finish to a wonderful season

The U16 team started the year with one of the smallest turnouts that I have ever seen. On opening day, there might have even been a question as to weather we had enough players to field a team. However, as some players moved down from First team, the U16 team began to gain strength – both in numbers and in talent.

Our start to the year was anything but encouraging. After a 7-1 loss to U.C.C. the team and I realized that there was a lot of work that we had to do to improve and compete against some of the stronger squads in the league. As each game passed, thanks to hard practices and a dedication to improve we got better; ultimately finding ourselves facing the strong U.C.C. team that we played earlier in the season. While we did not win, a 2-0 loss to them, was a moral victory for the guys, and pushed us even harder to improve our record and get into the playoffs. After a very hard fought game in the semi-finals, we lost to a very skilled Crescent side; 2-0. If our ultimate goal this year was to win the championship, we were not successful. But if our goal was to work hard, improve our skills, become competitive against the top teams in the league and lay ravage to the feeble U15's in a Lasertag competition, then there is no question: our objectives were met. Thanks for all of your hard work guys. - Jamie Inglis Esq.

If adversity builds character then this team had the most character of any team I have coached. By the time a fixed team was decided, which was the Saturday of the finals, a core group of dedicated players who had finished second in regular season play were prepared to give it their all. With only 12 players a convincing 5-1 win against Appleby gave us the confidence to believe that a championship was possible. In the final game, however, a stronger DLS side scored early and it was an up hill battle for the rest of the game with the hill growing ever steeper. The team can be proud of their twelve man effort. MJ.

The Under 14 Tier 1 Team had a pretty solid season but two losses to Hillfield left us playing CDS for a birth into playoffs. The game was rather nerve racking but we managed to squeak out a 4-4 tie and earn second place in our division. The semi final game was against UCC who were undefeated all season and beat us twice in exhibition games. The boys not only had to fight off a strong UCC team with home field advantage but we also faced pouring rain and 6 inches of mud. We managed to beat them 1-0 and had 45 minutes to recover and play in the final. The final was against Hillfield who also beat us twice this year. After 152 minutes of soccer in one afternoon the boys were pretty exhausted but super excited to hear the whistle blow and celebrate their 2-1 win over Hillfield. Great season boys!

The under-14 tier 2 soccer team had a fun season. I think that they were even surprised to figure out how good they were. Our season game down to an away game at Pickering College. We beat this team the first time we played them, and then we lost to them 7-4. We needed to win this game to make it into the playoffs as one of only two teams from our division to move on. The boys were nervous, coming off a tough defeat at the hands of this team, but they were also confident that they could beat Pickering. It was not meant to be and we ended up tying Pickering College 2-2, thus narrowly missing the playoffs.

Our guys worked hard all season long and had a heck of a lot of fun along the way. Coach Ching and I would like to thank our captains, Alex Harris and Dylan Hewko for leading the team and keeping them motivated and working together.

Thanks very much, boys, for a fun and gratifying season.

U 13 Soccer

The Under 13 soccer team looked to improve on the results of the team last year; as an under 12 team that only managed 2 wins. This was a task that took dedication, heart and, most of all, courage: courage to work harder than they had before. Courage to push each other every day in practice.

I am happy to tell you that the season was a great success and all because this team had courage with a capital 'C'. The team had many exciting matches, finishing fourth out of twenty teams in the national tournament held in Montreal. We played six of the seven games in either sideways rain, or blizzard-like snow. Our defense, anchored by Sean Smith, Kelsey Boland, Jonathan Cannon and Justin So, was simply unbeatable in most games. During the regular season, with a lot of tinkering to the line up, we saw players such as Akash K.C., Justin Moryto, Juan Cortina, Zachary Seto and Jack Tanabe-Holder make significant contributions off the bench. They were truly invaluable during the season. A great late addition to the team was Nathan Fan who served as backup goaltender, winning a big victory against Ridley College when we had no other goalies available. The championship game saw us play outstandingly, only to lose to UCC 3-1. We may have lost the final game, but everyone on the team was truly a champion, for the courage they displayed the whole season. MR & DJ

I had the honour of working with a very positive, energetic, and entertaining group this year. It was another challenging year as we faced the usual array of powerhouses, including Crescent School and Upper Canada College. Our season is not going to be defined by our victories but by the memorable moments. These have to include Justin Ford scoring his first goal and then celebrating by leaping into the air . Our memories will also include the individual acts of greatness that were seen all over the field; by our forwards (Evan, Christian, Jordan, Muhammad, and Chance; our captain) in the midfield by (Jacob, Andrew, Justin, Alexander, Stefano, and CJ) on defence, by (Conner, Marc, Owen, Lucas, and Charlie) by our goalies, god bless them, (Erik and Graeme) who were kept very busy. And we can't forget Burke, proudly waving his flag from the sideline, and cheering us on after breaking his arm early in the season.

The midget team this year consisted of a very talented bunch which included : Midge team. As a group they trained very hard and competed very well. The highlight o their season consisted of finishing second in the CISAA and earning a berth to the OFSAA Championships in Thunder Bay.

The junior team lacked a key element, a fourth runner so that they could count as a ful team. None-the-less the boys made the most of the scenario competing as individuals at th races.

The senior team consisted of several new bodies. These guys bonded well with the returnin members on the team. Fortunately none of the team is graduating and they can enjoy anothe successful year next year.

ST. ANDREW'S COLLEGE VOLLEYBALL

We, the coaches (Ms. Richer and Mr. Numa), are very pleased with our First Volleyball season. Over the past two years, this team has improved significantly because of the commitment of several graduating players: Andrew Baer, Ryan Kesteris, Tyler King, Mike Nowicki, Dennis Tomory, Braden Bonner. The other five athletes are also a major reason that the volleyball program has made such progress from last year. Each of these young men stepped up their game this year to compete with the best in the province. Our season began with several high calibre tournaments all over the province including; St. Patrick's in Ottawa, Eden in St. Catherine's, and the McMaster University tournament. These challenges gave our team the opportunity to represent St. Andrew's College as a competitor amongst the best in the province. We did not always come out on top but these challenging matches were always close. The experience of playing these games prepared us to face the best in CISAA.

Through the team's efforts we earned the honour of representing our school at the Ontario Championships (OFSAA) this winter.

The U16 volleyball league divided into east and west divisions this year. As part of the west division we went 5 and 0, defeating Hillfield Strathallen, Appleby, Your School, Villanova and Holy Trinity. We also defeated Trinity College and Crestwood Prep School in exhibition play. Our only loss in CIS season play was in an exhibition match vs UCC. Unfortunately, that's also who we ended up facing in the semi-finals. We played well, but UCC had significant depth, size and talent. Despite our best efforts, we still fell short. Much of our team was in Grade 10 and will therefore move on to the1st team next year. I wish them all the best in their jump to this next level of play. To the entire team, thanks for all of your hard work this year and congratulations on a successful season.

This year, the U14 Volleyball team went through many ups and downs. Once we got our passing under control, our serving went under. Once our serving improved, our nerves got the better of us. When we had it, however, we really had it. Our serving machine , Joey Kim, was unstoppable, our passing was accurate, out setting amazing and our hitting deadly. Unfortunately, it wasn't enough. Volleyball, like many other sports, is as much a mental game as it is physical and we just couldn't pull it together in the semi-finals. Coach Elliott and I would like to thank everyone for their hard work and dedication to a sport that is near and dear to our hearts.

Winter Activity Day '07

Winter Activity day took place on January 26th, 2007. There were many different activities offered to the students such as tubing, ice fishing, science centre, dog sledding and of course the ever popular skiing/ snowboarding. You had the choice of going to one of the best Ski Mountains in Ontario, brightening your scientific knowledge, trying something new with dog sledding, or just relaxing while you try to catch fish in the icy water. It is no surprise that winter activities day was an enjoyable experience and a highlight of the winter season.

Waiting for Godot

This year has been a productive one for the St. Andrew's College Dramatic Society. With the tremendous success of 'Cabaret', and with numerous upcoming projects, the future is looking bright for the dramatic arts at St. Andrew's College. One of the most anticipated plays, 'Waiting For Godot', features many of the actors from the fall play; 'Cabaret'. The director, Ryan Cole, is in grade 10. He was Puck in 'A Midsummer Night's Dream', and the emcee in 'Cabaret'. He is involved in many extra-curricular activities such as debating, cross-country skiing, and many leadership councils.

The two lead characters, Vladimir and Estragon; two confused, determined, yet, at times, naïve men, are played by Colin Murphy and Greg Vandemark. Colin and Greg are both graduating students at St. Andrew's College, and both are prevalent in student leadership. They play two characters who spend the entire play waiting for someone, or something, named 'Godot', a theme that becomes quite important and increasingly symbolic as the play unfolds.

The supporting cast in 'Waiting For Godot' is one of talent and diligence that includes Will Samson-Doel, Sebastian Biase, and Julian Fitzsimons. Will Samson-Doel, another graduating student, is actively involved in student leadership; Cadets in particular. Will's acting experience includes many FOCUS Festival plays, all of which have been a success. In 'Waiting For Godot', Will plays Pozzo, a self-righteous land owner, who also owns a slave. Sebastian Biase, is a grade 9 new boy just beginning his acting career. His character, Lucky, is a tired, knowledgeable, yet somewhat deranged slave to Pozzo. Julian Fitzsimons, is a grade 7 student at St. Andrew's College. As a former member of the Main Street Theatre Company, he is one of the most talented young actors in the Drama Society. Julian had a vocal solo in 'Cabaret', and also had a supporting role in 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'. The 'boy', played by Julian in 'Waiting For Godot', completes the five-man cast. The 'boy' is a servant to Godot and is a very mysterious addition to the play, but many audiences consider him to be the only sane character.

BATTLEFIELDS TOUR '07

For the fifth consecutive year, students and faculty from St. Andrew's College travelled to France and Belgium to tour the battlefields of the two Great Wars of the twentieth century. As in previous years, the group visited sacred Canadian ground, including Normandy, the Somme River Valley, Arras and Ypres. One highlight of the tour was the Canadian monument at Vimy Ridge, unveiled for the first time in two years. As we gazed upon the monument from the Canadian trenches, we suddenly found ourselves in the middle of a snow storm! This was eerily poignant considering that elements of the Canadian Corps attacked Vimy Ridge on April 9, 1917 amidst a snow storm.

The trip was a huge success and we look forward to returning to this sacred ground for many years to come.

Regardless of the outcome, First Hockey played like fearless, courageous, determined Champions. They deserved to be the MPHL, CISAA, and MacPherson Champions! Often they were tenacious, enthusiastic, and many times had the audacity to match the opposing teams intensity. Team Motto: Trust the little things.

To fill everybody in on our ice hockey season, here are a few highlights:

1. We were on the road for approximately 26 days, over a 4.5 month period. Most of these days were over holidays and long weekends.
2. We spent 120 plus hours on the bus.
3. We stayed in 8 hotels.
4. We had the NHL, OHL, QMJHL, NCAA Division I and III, Tier 2 Junior 'A' all come to watch some of our games.

The team this year traveled to many cities in the United States, including: Trenton, NJ, Lake Placid, NY, Buffalo, NY (3 times), Pittsburgh, PA (twice), and Culver, IN.

Thanks to the leadership team for all their support behind the scenes. Thank you faculty, staff, and student population for your flexibility and understanding. Thanks to the other members of the Coaching staff: Trevor Biasi, Kevin McHenry, David Dawson, Marnie McRoberts, and Ann Perrier.

The MVP this year is a player who exemplifies consistency, enthusiasm, heart and courage at each and every game. He was MacPherson MVP, he played 44 games with a SPCT of 91.3%, 5 SO and 2.16 GAA. He was voted First Hockey MVP by his team mates. This year's MVP is Vinny Lessard.

This year's MIP is a person who embodies hustle and attitude through every single shift. As the year progressed, he became a key contributor more and more in the big games, as well as maintaining his sandpaper approach on the defensive side of the game. The MIP this year is Mike Hale.

It was an up an down year for the JV Hockey team this winter season. The season started with an up at Nichols with a convincing tournament championship capping a 5-0 weekend. And the season ended up with a winning streak while pushing for the final playoff position. In between…just details. Highlights would have to include the previously mentioned Nichols Tournament Victory, beating St. Mike's in their own barn, and personally…getting to take laptops from the boys for playing Little Jon, the world's worst rapper. As you go from season to season, players graduate, and as a coach you wonder how you are going to make up for their loss. We certainly got a boost when Jevon Francis joined our school community. With him and 5 returning players, including starters Ryan Ball and Kyle Bergman, there was considerable optimism that we could make the playoffs. Mr. Godkin and I were well aware that St. Michael's and Ridley were likely to grab the top two spots. After that we felt it was going to be a battle and it was. We finished 5th of 8 in league play, the same as last year, but this year out of the playoffs, because of a new 4 team playoff format. We were very competitive with UCC and Crescent, the third and fourth place teams, splitting our games with both these teams. What hurt was we also split with Appleby and Hillfield, teams below us in the standings.

We struggled when it came to handling adversity. A triple overtime loss to Earl Haig in our tournament, a one point loss to Crescent, followed by a 4 point loss to Appleby had us reeling. Even though there is no advantage to dwelling on the negative or on things that are beyond our control, when you expect to win and lose you are certainly susceptible to feeling down.

A team wins and loses together. The best way to describe collective responsibility is to look at the scoreboard. At any point in the game when you look up there, there is no individual's name. When it mattered most, who can explain why our team's shooting dropped suddenly by more than 10%. Who can explain our poor shooting from the foul line.

Ultimately the team that wins is the team that does the basics better, the team that limits turnovers, and plays together. In the heat of the game we strayed from what we practiced. As Pat Riley, coach of the Miami Heat, said, "You can't win if you don't play as a unit". The toughest aspect of coaching is not learning how to handle winning but how to handle losing, particularly if you feel you have the talent.

The JV basketball team this year faced the usual challenges for participation in this league. We are one of only two teams in the league that are true junior varsity teams. The other eight are actually 1st teams; albeit from smaller schools. As such, their rosters are made up of the top 10-12 basketball players in their schools. Nonetheless, we started the season with high hopes and a great deal of enthusiasm. I couldn't have asked for a more positive group of guys. In the end, we finished the season without a single win, but I still couldn't be more proud of the enthusiasm and teamwork from this group of guys. As much as we all like to win, these young men were able to have fun and enjoy the game for its own sake, despite the results.

The U16 basketball team was extremely well balanced this year and several key players contributed to the team's success. The scoring was often balanced and the team played very well together on defense to stop other teams' key players. Drake McCleave was a solid player offensively in every single game, while Cruiser "One Speed" Fung slashed his way to double digit scoring. Zohair Rahman often drove fearlessly to the basket, while Brett Penrose and Boris Wong contributed greatly to our team during their limited chances to play. However, by definition, the Most Valuable Player of a team represents the individual without which the team would suffer the most; if they were to lose their services at any point during a game, or throughout the season. That one player that channels the team's success in the right direction, that we could not have fared well without. Our team's MVP was our leader daily, in practice and in games. He set an example with his work ethic and dedication. On the court, he called the offenses and defenses with consistency and often single-handedly broke other teams' defensive pressure; often while playing every minute of the game.

The U15 team completed a challenging but rewarding season. We were competitive in every game. Our games were exciting and hard fought. The boys played with determination and passion. Unfortunately, our efforts ran short in the playoffs against our arch rivals: UCC. The score is not a reflection of how close the game was: we played hard, with determination and style. After a slow start, we fought back, coming close (within 2 points), with three minutes left in the game. It was a very exciting game! Final Score: UCC: 43 - SAC: 28

The U14 basketball had a very successful season this year. We finished the regular season of our league play with a 9-1 record. Our only loss came in our first game of the year. After that first loss, we went on to win 9 straight with our average margin of victory being about 15 points. We had 16 players on the team and in most games we were able to play everyone. Our style of play was very exciting as we executed the run and gun fast break game very successfully most of the time. D.J.

The team had a great year with many fantastic finishes. We always competed in games and at any point could easily defeat the best that the opposition had to offer. We played the eventual champion, Royal St. George's to an 8 point loss in our last league game.

A week spent taking in the sites of Whiterock in the middle of February boosted moral, especially after getting a chance to see the national women's soccer team practice. We finished 11th at the tournament.

We certainly displayed heart and commitment throughout the season and never let any team feel that they could easily win a game against us. The hallmark of the squad was its tenacious defensive effort and suffocating man pressure.

It's true that our season highlight on the court was a late-season overtime loss to Holy Trinity School, which took place on February 21, 2007 in this gym, and yes, we did have witnesses; but it was still a great season. Our team was made up of 11 guys who worked hard, stayed positive, and never gave up during a game – even when it seemed like we were up against a squad of Yao Mings.

So to our guys in the back court; Graeme, Ali, Alexander, Christian, Conner, Marc, David A. and to our big men; Haitian, Kyle, David H. and Fernando – thanks for hanging in there. It was a lot of fun; from the chatty bus rides to skating on the Rideau Canal and I wouldn't change a thing.

After an undefeated season everyone played well in the round robin and we advanced to the finals to compete head to head with TCS. All season our matches with TCS were the closest. While Iker had the honour of playing in the #1 spot, he had a tough opponent and lost the match. But Devon, at #2, went out and crushed his guy in straight games. So with Devon's win, we were confident we could at least win 4 of the remaining 7 matches. Well, we lost at #3, suffered an injury at #4, and were in a close fight at #5! Then, as expected, Chan Moon won at 6, Andrew Chong at 7, and Raafeh Rahim at 8. We headed into the last two matches ahead 4-3 and needed to win one. It came down, finally, to the players at the 9th position. Warren Lau was playing 9 for us. He started slowly losing the first game, but then buried his opponent in the back of the court, waited for his chances to attack and won the next two games and the championship. It was a wonderful 5-4 finish. Next year we graduate four of our top five key players: of course, Iker and Devon, but also Sean Eng and Justin Oh who have both been important parts of this exceptional season. Next year, I am sure we will sustain the momentum and be in the hunt once again. We won't rebuild, we will reload.

I have been involved in the squash program for a number of years now, and I must tell you, it has been an incredibly satisfying experience. Our goals in the squash program are quite simple: participation, develop a love of the game, and have fun! Yes, we work on drills to develop skills, fitness, and strategy, but if you enjoy what you are doing, you will be more interested, more motivated, and become a better player.

This year was very special. I have never had a more enthusiastic team, or more talented group of players. From my point of view, this has been a dream season.

Our strength was such that we would win some matches by a score of 10-0, winning 30 games with not a single loss. We were undefeated the whole season. - When we played in the finals in early March, which we hosted here at St. Andrew's, we had every right to expect to do well. We had worked hard all season, and prepared well.

In the preliminary round, TCS finished third with 69 points; Crescent in second place with 78, and we placed first with 93 points. In the championship game, we played against Crescent, and we won by a score of 5-2.

When the sign-up for second term began, I really did not know whether or not I would have enough curlers to put a team on the ice. Slowly, interest began to trickle in, and we ended up with enough curlers to put two teams into the CIS. I truly wish I had video footage of our first day at the Bradford curling club. It was all we could do to not fall down, but the boys kept working hard and were rewarded with some great success. Team Jones earned a spot in the toughest division through their excellent play in the exhibition round. Team Reive worked their way to a third place finish in their own division of 10 teams. It was a great first season and I'd like to thank each curler for having the courage to try something new. I'm already excited to see what we can do in Year 2. # First & U16 Swimming

The 1st and U16 swim teams started off the year with high hopes for a great season. After last year's disappointing 8th place finish at the CISAA final, Coach Walden and I were optimistic that the return of many strong grade 9 and 10 swimmers and the addition of several new members would help the boys hang in tough with the CISAA swimming powerhouses: Ridley, St. Mike's, TCS and Appleby. Led by our fearless leader, Captain Graham Hynds, the boys routinely logged countless hours in the pool; running drills and long endurance sets until their muscles nearly gave out from exhaustion. By the end of the season, each individual athlete had improved both his fitness and his technique, setting a good base for the senior team in the years to come. In the end, both the 1st and U16 teams improved their CISAA placing over last year, with the 1st team placing 5th, and the U16 team placing 3rd. One of the highlights of the season was the qualification of the junior boys 200 freestyle relay team for the OFSAA championship. The team of Jon Thomson, Jerry Chu, Craig Davis, Jason Durst and Phil Whitfield went into this meet ranked 19th out of 32 teams. Coach Walden and I thought that the boys might have a chance at making the consolation final if they could put together a solid swim in the preliminary heats. Never in my wildest dreams did I think that these boys would make the finals, but they did, having the swim of their lives, and dropping 4.5 seconds off their qualifying time. In the end, they placed 7th in Ontario. They should be congratulated for their efforts.

Junior Swimming:

The Jr. swim team this season was not only big, but it was good. The team consisted of swimmers who had speed, skill and spirit. The U14 relay team; made up of: Terry, Daniel, Inigo and Gus was not only fast but feared by most of the other teams. Graham Davis led the cheer every meet and did not sit down for one race; he just kept cheering his teammates on, so if there was a spirit award, it would go to him. The grade sixes had to have been the most tenacious group of swimmers I have ever seen. Evan made his debut into the world of swimming and did not miss a practice. Matthew Mariani, Owen and Taylor, if given a choice, would have swam in every race if I had let them. It was certainly motivating for me as a coach to have a team with such enthusiasm for the sport. When I asked each team member to e-mail me with their choices for MIP and MVP no one voted for the same person twice, so the decisions were not easy. A.T.

As we know from the past across all sports, having a strong team does not always guarantee success. In fact, often the biggest challenge in sports is living up to the expectations placed upon you; not by resting on your laurels. For the senior Alpine ski team this year, this could not have been more true. If there was a year to dominate, this was it, and our racers took nothing for granted in their approach to the ski season. After 11 CISAA and four OFSAA championships in the last six years, we were faced with a very interesting situation this year: 55% of our racers were in their graduating year, and all of them were veterans of the program. While there were some significant drawbacks about graduating so many skiers in one year, it certainly presented a very interesting dynamic. Given the fact that the average time on the team for these racers was 3.5 years, all of our skiers had multiple years to refine their skills as they moved through our developmental teams to our top varsity teams. Without question, this was the best and deepest team that the school has seen which, considering our past success, is a lot to say.

Despite the complete lack of snow for the first 2 months of the winter, the Nordic team enjoyed one of its best seasons yet. I knew we were going to have a great season in our first week of practice: after a 9 km run on Monday, the boys asked me if we would be able to get out and run again on Tuesday. It is rare but very rewarding to coach a crew of boys who always choose harder, longer training.

Vladie was the only graduating member of the team. He has a strong training ethic and is fascinated by health and nutrition. We will miss his enthusiasm and analysis, and wish him the best next year.

This years MIP was a newcomer to the team. He showed a great deal of personal initiative; training for the sport on his own time, after our regular practices. In the CIS championship race he got into the main pack of racers early and hung tight to the finish; an incredible achievement, considering most senior boys are in their third or fourth season of competition. This year's MIP is Taylor Brown.
Our MVP is a returning team member who once again qualified for OFSSA. He finished first at a CIS early in the season and missed first place by 5 seconds at the CIS championship. This year's MVP is Ryan Cole.

CHURCH PARADE

The 142nd annual Church Parade, a prestigious ceremony usually held in downtown Toronto, enjoyed a welcomed change of scenery this year. The town of Aurora and its new mayor, Phyllis Morris, gave the Highlanders the honour of marching down Yonge Street from the College to the local church, Our Lady of Grace, to be presented with the key to the city. The weather was perfect and the corps performed at a very high level. Major McCue, the Headmaster and members of the Board of Governors, were present to graciously accept the town's award before beginning the proud march back to the College. All in all, the ceremony was a success and the corps lived up to its name.

The Cadet Inspection

The 102nd Annual Cadet Inspection took place this year on May 5th, 2007. Officiating was Brigadier General Peter Cameron, a former Colonel of the 48th Highlanders who is currently active in the Canadian Forces "Way Ahead" program. This year, over 200 Cadets achieved Star level certifications, over 100 musical qualifications, scuba and lifeguard certifications, and 41 Duke of Edinburgh Awards, including 7 at the Gold level. Twenty-nine students attended the fifth annual Battlefield Tour to France and Belgium, and six Cadets attended the summer cadet camp in Scotland, with the British Cadet Force. Three of our seniors achieved their National Star certifications and our senior Cadet, c/LCol. Alex Sung, was appointed "Master Cadet", the highest honour in the Cadet program. A very successful year indeed.

The day was perfect for a parade; not too warm, with a light breeze. The middle school Cadets in training company proudly wore their Cadet Greens, while the upper school looked resplendent in the traditional scarlet tunics and Gordon tartan kilts. BGen. Cameron was most impressed with the turnout of the Cadets, particularly with the Military Band, and Pipes and Drums, which added greatly to the ceremony. The Middle School displays of athletics, the Company Relay Race, and the Junior Drill put on fine displays during the presentation.

Ms. Karen Barker, the Regent of the 48th Highlander Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, presented the trophy for the best Middle School Cadet to LCpl. Ben Hanlon. The Aubrey M. Foy Award, for the most improved Middle School piper, was presented to LCpl. Arun Partridge. The JL Wright Trophy, for the Best Upper School Cadet, was presented by the Reviewing Officer to Lt. Dylan Baker. Mayor Phyllis Morris presented the Laurence Crowe Memorial Cup, for top marksmanship, to Cpl. Salvador Castaneda. Mr. King Ward presented the Ellsworth Trophy, for Best Platoon, to Lt. Vladie Lokshin of Smith Company. The Brian G. Armstrong trophy, for Best Company of 2007, was presented to Memorial Company.

On behalf of the officers and staff of the Corps, we wish great success to all our graduating Cadet Officers and NCMs. In particular, we would like to acknowledge the valuable assistance of this year's Headquarters, c/LCol. Alex Sung, c/Maj. Greg VandeMark, c/Maj. Adrian Wu, c/CWO. Michael Ligeti, Pipe Major Graham Hynds, and Military Band Officer c/Lt.. Scott Genin.

The CAIS Tournament was a fantastic start to the season - but injuries were the story after that point. At one point we had 6 starters injured and it was only the ability of those called to step up that kept us competitive. Many thanks to Marnie McRoberts for keeping us in game shape!

It was a very tight league this season and we entered the playoffs from 3rd position. A close fought semi-final match with Appleby saw us come out 5-3 winners - qualifying for a 5th consecutive CISAA Finals and a 3rd consecutive OFSAA entry!

The finals were an equally close, and very exciting, 60 minutes in which both S.A.C. and UCC defenses held tough under huge pressure, but in the end a perfectly placed Cam Tait kicks, with minutes remaining, allowed Zech Miller to score the winner and earn a CISAA Championship!

OFSAA was a fantastic experience in which we upset the #3 Seed from Trenton in a very tough defensive game and, even with Cam Tait out with a broken leg, came within one penalty kick of making the finals!

A near Cinderella season of close matches in which we came out on top in almost all the ones that mattered. A CAIS Championship, CISAA Championship, and 4th place at OFSAA. Congratulations to a group of excellent athletes who played as a true team. It was a pleasure.

Best of luck to our grads: May your rugby careers be long and glorious, but may you never forget this year!

With a record of 8 wins and 2 losses, the U16 rugby team had a very successful season. We reached the Championship game after being undefeated in 4 league games, and we won 3 exhibition games and had close loss at TCS. The league play was marked by some high scoring (averaging over 30 points against Appleby, CDS, Ridley and Crescent). We had a very strong attacking core of backs led by Morgan Bonner, Jason Durst, Mike Goitanich and Ander Lanzagorta. In many games, Graydon Calvert controlled the direction and pace of play. The forwards gelled as a unit and produced very good support running of their own; with Brenden Hewko, Jake Barnes, Jack Bang, Elan Amaev and Luke MacLead being most effective. The semi final was a very exciting game against UCC. We controlled the first part of the game and established a 20 point lead with some powerful, direct running and effective support play. But we let them back into the game to come within 2 points 28-26, before Elan Amaev secured the win with a fine try from a tap penalty in the final minutes. This primed us for the final at TCS, a reunion weekend for them. They were another high scoring team, and so it was going to be a question of defense. We had a game plan and came out of the gate to see Mike Goitanich score in the first minute.

What a run it has been. In my career as a football coach I have been a part of two undefeated seasons one in 2001 and the other in 2003. Never have I had the opportunity to coach a team that has gone undefeated for two consecutive seasons and have won two consecutive championships. In addition to going undefeated this year, The U14 Rugby team scored on average 34 points a game as opposed to giving up 7. In league play, we were an even more impressive 35 points for, and only 2 against per game.

However, being undefeated, having the incredible points for/against ratio, winning our second straight championship, is not the most impressive thing about this year's team. What is most important is that in nearly every game we played this year, between 20 and 30 players contributed and played significant minutes, not just our starting 13.

Huge thanks go out to our three year players who began as little grade sixers and have developed into fine rugby players. My final word to all of you is that four more championships in the Upper School stand in your way of having a Perfect Rugby Career. A very ambitious goal, but one that is possible with this group! This season was one of the strongest in recent memory. It began with a typically slow start as many new players found their feet in game conditions, against more experienced players. Although we found ourselves with little practice time, the coaches were pleased with the practice we saw during many of the players' off time. By the final two games of the season we were a much more formidable squad. We found that our losses were more a result of our own inexperience with the sport than with our opponents superior level of play. A few less dropped balls, a few more pick ups, a few more shots instead of passes, and we were on the road to victory. We encourage all players to throw a ball over the summer and prepare for next season.

The First Badminton team had a very successful season in 2007. Oddly, our first matches of the year were the OFSAA qualifiers, which we hosted here at St. Andrew's for the third straight year. Our two teams competing in doubles were Jon Si and Jerry Chu and Radissen Ramoutar and Adrian Lau. In singles competition, the Eng brothers, Sean and Adrian, were chosen to represent SAC. Although we did not have any team member qualify for OFSAA, we had a strong outing with our best performance being turned in by Adrian Eng, finishing third. In his first match, Adrian lost 22-20 and 21 – 17 to the eventual tournament champion.The rest of the regular season had us playing TCS, UCC, St Mikes, Bayview Glen, and RSGC and earning a record of 3-2. In the finals, we finished fourth in a field of 12 competing schools. Well done, team.

A well prepared and talented S.A.C. U16 Badminton team traveled to Humber College hoping to snatch gold from schools boasting nationally ranked club players - Crescent, Upper Canada, and Royal St. Georges.

Each school fields three singles players and two doubles teams. Team and individual recognition (medals) are up for grabs. Our strength in seasonal play has been our doubles teams; JinSoo Lee and Looky Lu (1st) and Boris Lo and Tanat Ratanakosum (2nd). Our singles squad had some depth; Jerry Chu (1st) followed by Josh Si and Ryan Lee, who finished up the season almost equal, adding an element of flexibility to the order of play.

Our first competition was against Royal St.Georges and served as a good warmup. SAC won easily 4 of 5 matches. Next up was Crescent and having lost only 3-2 in seasonal play - we were hopeful. Tentative play, across the board, from both teams ,meant games could have gone either way. A combination of unforced errors and lapses in focus resulted in Crescent emerging on top, with only our first doubles team prevailing.

By the end of the tournament, SAC had won a gold, a silver and a bronze medal. JinSoo Lee and Looky won gold for being the top first doubles team. Jinsoo and Looky have been undefeated for two years in both seasonal and championship play (U14 and U16)!!! Boris and Tanat won silver and Jerry Chu bronze.

Despite the grumblings of club players taking most of the medals, their matches were impressive and exciting to watch. Perfectly executed feints, flicks, and hairpin net shots combined with fast paced smashes, kills and passing shots (right on the baseline) gave our players something to aim for in future play!

All in all, a very enjoyable season and respectable final result! MJ

What a wonderful team we had this year; although we did not win every match (however the highlight for the boys was beating UCC) we certainly made up for it in character and quirkiness. From Sam's contagious smile on the court, even when we were losing, to Adi trying to give bear hugs to his opponents, you've never met a more memorable team. This team has a big heart and I've never seen a team get along so well as this one. Extra thanks to Marke Jones who showed the team how to play piggyback badminton and to Radisson, on the First team, for giving the boys many useful tips. The MIP this year is Ryan Daniell. Ryan hoped to try something new this year and surprised himself when he made the team. He went on to become a First Doubles player and also to win many exhibition games against the top players in other schools. Our MVP this year is Terry Lee. Terry's strategically sound game, fast smashes, and great athletic ability made him untouchable in the First Singles seat. With most of our players being Grade 8 students, I will look to Terry, Ben, and Jack to be leaders on the team next year. CRD

I'm happy to report that the 2007 baseball season was much more successful than last year's for both the players and the coaches. We exceeded our pre-season expectations by finishing 3rd out of 8 CIS teams. We lost a close semi-final, 14-11, to a strong Nichols School from Buffalo. Nichols went on to lose a very close final to St. Mike's, 7-6. Clearly, the St. Andrew's baseball program has taken a huge step forward this year. We're optimistic that we can realize our 2008 goal of qualifying for OFSAA baseball, and of having the opportunity to play before the Blue Jays at the Rogers Centre. We would like to thank our graduating players for their solid contribution to baseball at S.A.C.: Ben Calvert, Ryan Kesteris, Iker Lanzagorta, Wes Tiller and Taylor Walker. All of these players have helped to put this program on the map both at St. Andrew's and in the CIS.

Before I close, I would like to unequivocally state that the varsity baseball team looked great on the diamond this season. Our uniforms were undoubtedly the nicest in the league. Mr. Biasi, Mr. Gurr and I enjoyed wearing a full uniform – you have to be confident as a grown man to squeeze yourself into a pair of polyester baseball pants. We've decided to make a recommendation to Mr. Reid that all coaches wear full uniforms next year. Wouldn't it be great to see Mr. Galajda and Mr. McDonald behind the bench in full hockey equipment? How about Mr. Shrimpton, Shields and Gurr in shoulder pads and football helmets on the sidelines. I'm sure we would all like to see Mr. Numa in a basketball tank top or Mr. Walden is a Speedo. On behalf of Mr. Biasi and Mr. Gurr, I would like to sincerely thank all of this year's players. You should all be very proud of our progress as a team this season. Through thick and thin, this team was truly a pleasure to coach.
Thanks for all of the laughs. K.M.

In humid weather, the Saints batted first and looked in dire straits after losing three wickets in quick succession (Gray, Conolly, Rizvi) for a total of 1 run. Nevertheless, our remaining batters put up a solid defense and drained the strength of the UCC XI over the remaining 40 overs (240 balls) to score an astounding 152 runs. This was the highest score S.A.C. has run-up in recent memory. Technician Nitin Thakurani put on a clinic for the crowd: batting for over three hours to reach 85 runs (and would not have been out, had he not unselfishly tried to run the total up for the team on the last ball of our innings, allowing himself to get run out). No coach can remember any player in this league scoring this high a total, and no doubt this fine young cricketer's legacy shall be discussed for many years to come! Congratulations, Nitin!

From then on, UCC played defensively in an attempt for a draw, gaining at least 3 points from it. Despite tallying up some 87 runs, nearly half of those were gifts from our young bowlers in the form of wides and no balls. The S.A.C. fielding was spectacular with 6 excellent catches - Duncan Cole's on the boundary perhaps being the most notable, but Josh Stevenson and Alex Conolly made at least 2 each as well! The Saints battled on trying to retire the 10 UCC batsmen, and came within 2 wickets of achieving that before the overs limit ran out. In his 10 overs, Andrew Strauss's frenetically paced bowling stung UCC for 4 wickets on only 20 runs; a terrific 5 run per wicket average; Coaches Kyle and Gomes were especially pleased with the constant and positive encouragement shared on the field among the S.A.C. boys, led by 2nd wicketkeeper Gordon Gray.

I would like to thank the veterans of the team that will be graduating: Guery Goyo, Alejandro Ibarra, Jevon Francis, Adam Yates, Alex Mann, Harrison Jones, and Josh Hanson. Several of these guys have been true to the program since their grade nine year and I will miss them deeply.During the season there were excellent performances attained; at the CISAA Championship meet several individuals finished in the top four and qualified for the metro championships. In the senior boys division Josh Hanson (first), Jevon Francis and Harrison Jones all qualified in the long jump, Dennis Cheung won the triple jump, Jevon Francis also placed fourth in the 200m, and finally Stefan Noel won the 800m and placed second in the 400m. The senior boys "B" 4 x 100m relay team also were successful finishing 3rd and running faster than our "A" team. That team consisted of Aron Kwok, Stefan Noel, Mario Recio, and Dennis Cheung. At the Metro Region OFSAA qualifiers the highlights included Stefan Noel finishing 10th in the 400m and sixth in the 800m.

This was a very busy season with 5 meets on our schedule. Our objective from the outset was to achieve personal bests from meet to meet. I was very pleased with the work ethic of the boys and proud of their achievements. In particular, the U-12 4x100 relay team garnered several first place finishes; Lyndon Zhao demonstrated considerable endurance and speed in the 800m and 1500m events, finishing either first or second in all his races; and Will Egi dominated just about every running and jumping event he entered. Throughout the season there was an abundance of normal aches and pains, good laughs, and of course our novel training techniques- blood and guts, killer miller, and par luffs. Everyone wondered what was going to be next? Some offered their own suggestions. Lance was always full of good ideas on how to improve such as playing baseball. Others felt shorter practices were most effective. Fortunately, the atmosphere was dominated by those who treated workouts seriously and put forth the effort to get better.

This year we had a very young tournament team made up of players in grade 10 and 11: Corey Morrison, Mark Jenkins, Thomas Tripodi, Andrew Wallace, Michael Anderson and Gil Han. After the four league tournaments we earned an invitation to the final championship tournament having finished in 7th place out of fourteen teams. At the final championship tournament we improved our standing finishing tied for 4th place with a team score of 321; an average of 80 per player: a significant improvement over our previous efforts. The MIP goes to one of the most enthusiastic and dedicated players. He improved his average over the course of the season by 3 strokes and made valuable contributions in all the tournaments. Mark Jenkins. Andrew Wallace tied for low round, with a score of 70 (two below par) at the tournament held at Angus Glen Golf Club on the south course. This is the lowest score recorded at this course in the six years Angus Glen has hosted this event. At Black Bear Ridge, in rainy, cold conditions, Andrew shot 78; and the second lowest round of the day. Over the course of the season, he averaged a score of 76.6 and finished the season tied for 3rd in the individual rankings. Andrew was our MVP. R.G.

Junior Golf

Second Row: Andrew Pacione, Mark McLean, Danny McConnell, Ben Pidduck
Missing: Devin Healy, Clark Rabbior.

The Junior Golf Team consistently improved their standing in the 15 team league. A disappointing opening tournament saw the boys finish out of the top six and the points, but they rallied to improve in each of the following three weeks to lower the overall team score by 40 strokes in tournament four at the rain drenched Trillium Woods in Belleville. Our four top scorers braved the elements and posted an average round of 82 - good for 4th place and an invitation to the CISAA Championship Tournament. It is rare for a middle school student to be invited to play on the golf team and I'm sure this is the first year that we have two grade 8's in our line-up - Danny McConnell and Andrew Pacione. The other members of this years team are: Ryley Begg, Scott Evans, Ryan Gauthier, Devin Healy, Mark McLean, Ben Pidduck, and Clark Rabbior. D.F.

1st Tennis

First Row: Mrs. Robyn O'Hare Esq, Rob Kaptyn, Charles Ho, Rodrigo Said, Warren Lau
Missing: Scott Munro.

Among these nine players, two are grads – Devon Bean and Rob Kaptyn – who's leadership, talent and great bus conversations we will miss next year. Congratulations, Devon on your terrific finish at the CISAA. I told you that if you wanted to win, you would…and you did. We wish you both all the best next year. Next, we have two grade 8's playing at the 1st Team level. Rodrigo Said and Andres Garza are two very talented young men who raised the level of competition among our team, but also allowed us to challenge the stronger teams this season. I enjoyed boasting to the other tennis coaches that they were only in grade 8. The coaches were first shocked and then I could see the tension grow on their faces as they looked down the road 4 years from now when they would be playing for St. Andrew's in grade 12, wondering how fierce a team we would have! But sadly, neither of them will be returning next year.The remaining 5 players from our team are Warren Lau, Scott Munro, Nico Sucunza, Charles Ho and Mike Choi. These 5 demonstrate a range of talent, but all have tremendous potential and a desire to improve their game. With these 5 young men, the team has a bright future. The team had enough wins from our matches throughout the season to qualify us for CISAA. In the end, we tied for 5th place, with Ridley College, out of 12 schools.

MIP: Scott Munro
MVP: Rodrigo Said

U14 Tennis

1st Row: Inigo Aranzabal, Sean Smith, Alexander Seto, Zachary Seto, Bilaal Rajan, Grant Pollock
Second Row: Charles Hilboldt, Alexander Schwarze, Roberto Jones, Fernando Delgado, Ryan Rogers, Ms. Maggie Pelc Esq.

This spring, the U14 Tennis season started out in traditional fashion: cold and wet. Despite the harsh clime, a group of eleven tenacious young men, including, Robby Jones, team manager, managed to weather the storm and come out to every practice. Despite a disappointing loss to UCC at the end of the season, each player experienced success in his own way.

Highlights of the season include:
- conditioning in the rain with Mr. Ludwig
- the bus breaking down twice on the way to Ridley
- the dynamic (almost) undefeated duo of Fernando and Alex Seto
- and the frequent visits of Mr. Richardson's dog

I would like to thank a great group of boys for a fun season: double R, Scharze, Inigo, Smitty, Fernando, mini Seto, big Seto, GP, Bilaal, Charlie and last but not least, the very responsible Mr. Jones.

MIP: Zachary Seto
MVP: Sean Smith

Second Row: Spencer Powell, Matthew Wong, Cruiser Fung, Cameron Oram, Andy Mok, Hyunwoo Kim.

MVP: Alex Culp

I kept 13 players on the team this year, because a strong interest was shown by all, and there was a lot of enthusiasm for the game of tennis. I had 4 returning players in the top seven, so I figured we would have a pretty strong team. As you may know our competitive team consists of 7 players; the top three ranks play singles, the other four play 1st and 2nd doubles. During the season we did well against Ridley, Hillfield, and Appleby, but we lost to Crescent and UCC. Our performance in the finals was roughly the same. Out of 9 teams, we finished the season in the middle of the standings, in 5th place.

I usually don't highlight individual performances, preferring to address the team as a whole, but this year I'll make an exception. That's because of the outstanding performance, all season long, of our top player Alex Culp.

Alex was our team captain, and is possibly the best player I have ever coached at this level. He lost one match during the season, and one in the finals. When we were losing 4-1 against UCC and Crescent, his was the lone win. When you play at the #1 spot, you are facing provincial-ranked players, who play at exclusive clubs, and have private coaches, and compete in tournaments during the winter. Alex had no such advantage and still outplayed most of these players. He was one of the 3 best players in the league! Impressive!

For that reason he fully deserves the MVP award!

The MIP award goes to someone who joined the team late, but quickly made his presence felt. A powerful hitter, quick on his feet, developed enough control to actually aim some of his shots, and climbed the rankings all the way to #2: Ryan Carlisle. TP

I never really thought this day would come as fast as it did. It's June 11th and this comment was due like March 3rd but I put off writing it till I could think of something good to say. Like a typical black male, I'd like to first and foremost thank God. I don't know where he was when I was getting killed on my tests and exams, but I guess you really do work in mysterious ways. Next in line are my parents, for all the support they gave me through my time at SAC. The financial and emotional backing that you've given me over the past 3 years - through all my highs and lows - has been absolutely incredible. When I make it some day, I hope to somehow repay both of you for everything you've done for me. Next I'd like to thank all of the teachers that have hooked me up over the years, especially Mr. Shrimpton. Thanks for helping me out a lot during my last year here, you really helped make this year special and do the last of the "growing up" that I needed before leaving to university. Thanks to all the guys who made my 3 years here special – Ladi, Neil, Adel, DCole, bergs, the black folk in grade 11 (y'all know who you is), everyone who was on the D-line in football, twalk, fed, and if I forgot you I'm sorry – I got love for all of you. As much as I hated this place at times, leaving is gonna be hard.. really hard. To the younger guys, don't take your time here for granted, make the best of every opportunity that comes your way. Damn, it seriously only seems like yesterday when I first drove up the Gates.

My career at St. Andrews, although short-lived, was incredible nevertheless. From the new boys reception to prize day, it's been interesting. I have to thank my revolving wheel of advisors for their help, Mr. Wenk, Kitigawa and Shrimpton. I can't say my two years here were sensational, but they were defiantly memorable. A perfect mixture of fun, sports, studies, conflict, hard work, vegetativity and chaos, blended together to create one hell of time to remember. I remember my first class, grade 11 English with Mr. Cowell, and I remember seeing a broad in the 1st row (sorry Guery). Doug, your beautiful car was indeed short-lived, however you are Freeeesh, so it's ok. Goyo, I will never let it go… haha its ok cuz u should have made 1st soccer. Shleeb, thanks for…hurting people? haha yea I know, Arsenal is the best football club ever to play the game. Sean, you probably know what I'm going to say so I'm not going to say it, SeeeaN. Will thanks for being the only one who can carry an intellectual argument. Jones, you care so little that it only makes sense that you care about life more than any of us..? Ligeti you're a beast, and I think I failed AP damn! I can't forget the ones who made this all possible, my parents. Your nosiness has kept my out of a lot of trouble and helped me in more ways than I could have guessed thanks. To my brother and sister, thanks for always being there, through the good and the bad. In this short time I have met a lot of people here and made a lot of friends, many of which I am sure I will remain friends with for a long time to come. It is by these connections and this brotherhood that I will remember St. Andrews and why I shall forever remain an Andrean. I wish everyone good luck in their future endeavours.

Sports: 1st Volleyball (Captain two years) with two trips to OFSAA, JV hockey ('06 champs), 1st Lacrosse ('06 and 07 CISAA champs, OFSAA Champs) As I look back on my 5 years at St. Andrew's, I couldn't be happier about the time I have spent here. I really got involved in sports that I never thought I would (in particularly lacrosse) and really flourished under the pressures of performing at an elite school. Of course, I would first like to thank my parents for everything they have done for me. All I really have to say about them is that they are true champions. I wouldn't be where I am now without you guys so THANK YOU! (capitalizing something like that shows just how much I mean it). Some shout outs: my Halifax crew, Eric, Bonner, and Burkey… you guys left me with some funny times that will stick with me for a long time. Burke… I'm sorry, but you will always be rattled. My HTS boys (who followed me) Shouldice and Miklas… you guys make me laugh day in day out especially DAAAAAVE. To all my friends from the day I walked in the door in grade 8 such as Giroux, Goitanich, Healy, Lebar, Tozzi, Kaptyn, Oram, Calvert… I owe it to you guys for making it so easy to fit in. Loller skates to you Stew, loller skates indeed.), Will Yuen (as the nicest person I'll ever meet in my life!), Beaner (for your dumb sayings and sushi bros forever!), Graham Hynds (for your spastic randomness and as someone I look up to). We live in a world where things, people, and even friends come and go like the wind. Someone once told me though that as long as you've made one memory, you haven't wasted that day. The way I see it, over the five years, I haven't wasted one day of my life at St. Andrew's College.

Comments: The last 4 years have absolutely whizzed by since I arrived in grade 9 as a naïve little young islander boy. Since then I have grown significantly, and I would like to thank my parents for sacrificing so much to let me attend such a fabulous institution as St. Andrew's. I've experienced so many things here in Canada which I would have never been subjected to back home. I would like to thank some of the best teachers I've ever had: Mr. Perrier (best math teacher ever), Mrs. Auger (most hilarious and enjoyable Data Management class in the world), Mr. Numa (we had great times con los mexicanos trying to speak Spanish fluently), Mrs. Chasson (music class was always a blast) and Mr. Service (economics teacher and friend). I must send a huge shout-out to Mr. Inglis who has believed in me from the start – a fantastic advisor. Finally, my friends. I will never forget all the great memories and times we had together. The dozens of concerts attended in Toronto were unbelievable! Yoshi: I never would have seen so many bizarre and obscure movies if not for you. Housser: You and Josh have been like brothers, thanks for everything. I'll meet you at da loo, di annie joe's on me ;) Fedorov: I couldn't have had a better roommate, thanks for putting up with me! ## Anthony D'Antonio

Names: Anthony Domenic D'Antonio, D'Antonio, Domenic, A.D.D., D-Tonez, D-Tonez My Bones, D-Tone, D to the Apostrophe, D, Tony, D-Tan, Antonio, Solid, Guy, Dude, Italian, Gino, Solid Mint Gino. Activities: Member of Carol Service Choir, Member of First Soccer, First Swimming, First Golf, S.A.C. Christian Fellowship, S.A.G.E. Council, Participated in Cadets in Concert, Red Man Crew, Member of the Pipes and Drums, Community Service Council, African Dance 2006, Ramsey Head of House. Attending St. Andrew's College has been an experience only a few are fortunate to enjoy. Being an Andrean has more meaning than just being a student of St. Andrews. Being an Andrean means to become a part of a family so rich with tradition, friendship, loyalty and plain old fun. In my years at S.A.C., many memories come to mind but only a few stand out over the top. When talking about the school itself, participating in Cadets in Concert in front of hundreds of people, or spending late nights here until 12:30 A.M. preparing for something the next day will be something I'll never forget. When talking about the social times at S.A.C., who could forget the infamous shaving of MY HEAD in Grade 9. I'll never forget walking into science class after shaving that massive fro of mine during lunch. My dignity fell away with every strand of hair being slaughtered off my head. As well as the lows, we have great times with the Solid Mint Gino's; a band created by Peter Goitanich, Braden Bonner and myself. Great hits such as "Nunziado's Car Yo" were heard in the halls for quite some time. But to be a part of these experiences wouldn't have been the same without the great friendship of some of my closest friends. Tyler King, Greg Vandemark and Wes Tiller will always be some of my greatest friends and they have made my experience here a much more worthwhile one. The next three people that I would like to mention is Mr. McCue, Mr. Tsioros and Mr. Numa. These three men have been the closest to me guiding me and helping me along my journey here at S.A.C.. All in all, I can say I am pleased and grateful for my experience here and there are two people I can thank for that; my mother and father. Without their support I wouldn't have been able to do everything I have done here. Thanks for everything!

Dylan Edminson

Nicknames: Dyl, Dylard, Dylbert, Dildo, DEEELAN. Activities: JV Soccer (2a), Alpine Skiing (8a), Gumball, 8yr club My 8th and final year has been one in which I gained a careers worth of new memories and many new friendships that will last a lifetime. Highlights of the year must be the winter months on the Alpine Ski Team, where we clinched CISAA and OFSAA championships again, along with winning every race of the season bringing the total Ofsaa gold medal count to 13 is also something to be proud of. The stress of trading currency during and in between classes is something that will not be missed. Thanks to the old man for footing the quarter million dollar bill it took to send me here, it was worth it. Thanks to my roommate and the rest of the boys in the boarding houses who managed to keep me busy week after week: Rainman, mung, kiell, niiiii, tait, ,momo, drager, melch and dmo, our daily trips to "dairy queen and tim hortons" with a stop off behind AC will not be forgotten. Thanks also goes to the X5, A3, and green monster for getting me off campus when i just couldn't handle it anymore. Thanks must also go out to Mr. Shrimpton and Mr. Inglis for keeping me on track, and thanks to Mr. Day for his unforgettable cheering and remarks whenever i finished a race. Thanks to my teachers for making time spent in the classroom bearable: Service, Kimmerer, Robson, Biasi and Scoular, I could not have picked a better 5 courses this year. The experience that 8 years of this place has given me is something nothing else could have. Good luck to the rest of the boys of '07, my career at sac wouldn't have been the same if i didn't finish it off with you fellas. I can now finally join my class of '06 at uni. PEACE

Their continual support, guidance and encouragement have helped me immensely on my journey in upper school. Many thanks to Mr. Butcher, Mr. Te Bokkel, Mr. Scoular, Mrs. Auger, Ms. Richer, and Mr. Day. My understanding and knowledge in my subjects would not have been the same without you. To Mr. Godkin and Mr. Rush for being supportive coaches in badminton and squash. To my ever supportive and helpful advisor, Mr. Numa, thank you for all the advice and help you have given me. And I wish Will, Alex, Bryan, Nick, Joseph, Johnny, J.J., Emerson, and all my classmates all the best in their future endeavours and studies. To my brother entering grade 12, work hard, play hard, never give up, and remember to enjoy your last year at S.A.C., it will pass you by before you know it! To the rest of the S.A.C. community, thanks for a memorable 6 years. Quit ye like men, be strong!

He is an affable and courteous young man who is known to make strange comments, such as: "They say the recipe for Sprite is lemon and lime. But I tried to make it at home; there's more to it than that." "I remixed a remix, it was back to normal." "My lucky number is 4 billion. That doesn't come real handy when you're gambling." Mike's decided next year to try his luck in the Social Sciences at Western.

St. Andrew's College has made a permanent positive impact on who I am today. In a time of my life were my surroundings were crucial to my development, SAC has provided an environment for learning not just education, but morals and goals that surpass my teenage years. I've met people here that will forever be a part of who I am, from roommates to house mates, to days boys, to those who have already graduated, you all know who you are. Every one of you has impacted me and I could never show the full extent of my appreciation. Another amazing part about this place, is that the teachers aren't just teachers. They've all provided guidance, while still managing to fill their specific roles in the community, Mr. Shrimpton, Mr. McCue, Mr. Schoular, Mr. Stewart, Thank you for your direction. Of course I wouldn't have been able to attend this spectacular institute if it wasn't for my mom and her devotedness despite all my screw ups. Thank you for believing in me when it felt like everyone else had given up. You are a source of inspiration, and I haven't thanked you nearly enough. I wish my Dad could be here to watch me graduate from a place like this, but I know he's proud, and I aspire and hope to become everything he embodied. I'll be leaving these gates with no regrets, everything that has happened, good and bad, are all part of what has shaped me as I leave. I now enter the real world, hopefully prepared for what lies ahead of me. I'll forever be an Andrean, thank you St. Andrew's for everything you have provided.

The decision to come from public school to this private school environment was a decision I am proud of. One of the biggest reasons for me taking a liking to this school was the friends that I gained out of this whole experience. Shout outs to my hommies Negropo always holding down the rides to place City Barrie and dominating on the ice. Hambone the room mate always a good time chilling with you man Chivalry movement we going to publish the book one day, Bergman Soccer was fun but I think we should have played football aha. The whole black squad we made the dances what they are ...WALK IT OUT BOYZ and Matt Hale we have to run that cover 2 one day aha.. And any one else that chilled with me it was good times going to miss all you guys keep in touch! To Mr. & Mrs. P I'm going to miss you for sure always taking care of me feeding me (and telling me to stay focused and give it my best shot) extremely appreciated. Mr. Godkin as well for the on and off court challenges that he brought to me and helped me complete, and for all he has taught me. In the end it was a very memorable FIRST and last year I wont ever forget this amazing place. PS Gurr, Shrimpton, Godkin, Ludwig, and T-Boc still owe the grade 12 varsity basketball players a rematch!!!

Scott Genin

I am one of the lifers at S.A.C. being here since grade six and it has been a very enjoyable experience. From the beginning I knew that this was not an ordinary place, and the opportunities I have had are limitless. I have participated in the Harvard Association for cultivating Inter-American Democracy for two years, and in 2007 I was awarded a best delegate award in the Pan-American Health Organization committee. It was a once in a life time experience, and I would have never had that opportunity if I did not go to S.A.C. I have been the Band Officer for the military band and assistant captain on the swim team with Hynds and Kiefer. It most certainly has been a good experience meeting exceptional friends and participating in exceptional activities.

Activities: SAC TV, SAC Film Society, Community Service Council, Laidlaw House, Laidlaw Platoon Commander, Middle School House Captain, Henry V, Focus, Christian Fellowship. Coming to SAC in September 2002 as a quiet Gr. 8, I could have never imagined I would be leaving as the person I am today. Whether it's been staying in school until 11:00 pm on a nightly basis for play rehearsal, standing at attention for what seemed like hours on end in Cadets, or gathering downtown for the Annual Carol Service, almost every experience I've had at SAC over the last five years has been invaluable to my growth as a person. Thanks to my parents for sacrificing so much to send to send me to SAC, and to all those who have made these last few years such an amazing experience. To the faculty, specifically Numa, Service, Thorne, Te Bokkle, thanks for always being there for last minute extra-help sessions, advice, or...just to chat. Thanks to the Christian Fellowship gang, King, Hynds and Wu. Ladi, Leke, Neil, King, Jevon, Benny C, Kest, thanks for all the fun Raps chats, the NBA 'chip is coming to Toronto next year – just watch. Finally, If I can give one piece of advice to current or future SAC students, it would be to seize every opportunity that comes your way – the more you put into this place, the greater your experience will be.

(Cam Tait)", "That's a common misconception", "Hyperhydrosis – It's a condition", "Cram it, Aron." It's been seven long and very interesting years since the first time I drove through the gates of St. Andrew's. Too many great times have happened for me to mention, but I can rhyme off a few: beating the #1 ranked St. Mike's football team in the semi finals last year, back-to-back defeats of UCC this year, all of the AP's, as well as the trip to Tremblant which was a hell of a time. My greatest accomplishment over these seven years is definitely being the letter "A" in the "GO SAINTS GO" at MacPherson. The part which I'll miss the most about St. Andrew's will undoubtedly be the friends which I've made along the way. So to the boys – you know who you are – it's been incredible and I'll miss you guys next year. I want to thank my parents: without your money I wouldn't be here. And I'd also like to thank the teachers who have guided me along the way, particularly Mr. K, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Numa, and Mr. Shrimpton. Although my SAC career has only lasted seven years, the memories will last a lifetime.

Coming from Barbados I expected the change to be pretty difficult but in the end it all worked out quite well. I can safely say I do not regret coming to SAC one bit. To all the Islanders: "Wunna bad, man. Keep it real.". To everyone else you all have been great and made my two years here rather interesting. Special mention to some at the school: Goyo you can still come to Barbados if you want, same to Doug. Charlos you will be a successful white man. Priebe say hi to Monica for me. Ibarra, the window stays closed! Rainer one of these days you might see me in the gym. Thanks to all the other fellers that enhanced my experience here as well. SAC was memorable because of all of you. Mr. Walden, the sea water is always fresh in Barbados, feel free to drop down sometime. Thanks to all the faculty and my advisor Mr. Swan for always lending a hand and making these two years successful. And the Perriers for their unbelievable efforts and understanding contributing to a fantastic boarding life. Back home, a VERY special thanks to both my parents and the rest of my family for making this happen and putting up with me through it all. Love you all! Hopefully some day I'll make it to your stature in the world. Thanks again to all of you! These two years have been great despite the few ups and downs.

Putting six years into one 250 word piece is slightly convoluted. To the grads, this was the last good year, it simply cannot be disputed. All the boys, you know who you are, you are unflinchingly saluted. Mom and Dad, your love and support is the greatest, this is un-refuted. Mike and D, hold it down on 12, Edmund while my voice is muted. Laptop, thanks ever so much for the education you diluted and Mrs. Auger and Ms. Chasson, I apologize for the classroom environments I polluted.

My four years at St. Andrew's College, will be the most memorable days of my life. Foremost, I would like to thank my parents for providing me the opportunity to attend St. Andrews where I have made a lot of friendships that I am confident will last forever. Doug, I will always remember those endless bon-fires at your house or should I say my second home. I am positive that when you come home from university you will find me living in your other up-stairs. Don't worry, its ok that you didn't come to Laurier, I am sure that Western with Jess will be a blast. Will, I will always remember those countless arguments you and I had over the years and you losing every one of them. Have fun in Ottawa big guy, I heard they have great panini's there. Jones, I will always remember you sleeping over and shocking my mom in the morning by coming upstairs from the basement while we were all eating breakfast. Have fun at Mac bud. Adib, how could I forget, every time I was down, you were there to make me hit a new all time low. Ligeti, congrats, I will always remember the number of times that we made it to chapel on time- on one hand. I would like to thank Sam Brooks, for giving me the encouragement when I quite simply didn't want to work anymore. I really appreciate it. Finally, I would like to thank Mr. McCue and Mr. Manning for having faith in me on the soccer field when others didn't. Mr. Numa – Juve Rules!! To my fellow students who are starting the road of becoming an Andrean, I strongly suggest that you get involved with everything that the school has to offer- you will not regret the experience. Finally, because of my experiences at St. Andrew's and its community, I will forever remain an Andrean.

Activities: Varsity Football, Varsity Skiing (MVP 07, CISAA Champion 07), HASCIA Democracy of the Americas 07, Cadet NCO. As I depart here on my short time at SAC I can say that it has been one filled with many experiences. It is only now that I look back that I can reflect on such memories. Notable experiences including my participation in the OFSAA winning ski team or breaking the barriers of culture and ethnicity and travelling on the HASCIA democracy trip to experience first hand the issues that our world deals with today. It is not just the education I take with me, but for me it is the ability to be confident in myself as a leader because believing is the first step. So as I look upon my days into the future I think of destiny, but then again life is what u make it to be and that path is dependent upon you and you only. So I thank everyone who has been instrumental in my development whether it has been big or small and wish everyone good luck in the future and to all the boys at SAC we had some good times, but there are more to come.

Josh Hanson

I don't quite remember my first time at S.A.C. as much as everyone else. Coming through the gates and up the long driveway. However, at that time I was only a few days old.
The transition from my elementary to school to here couldn't have been smoother, since I grew up on this campus, it felt just like home. However, moving from playing computer games at the back of my Mom and Dad's classrooms, to learning at the front, was quite a change though, I must say. After all of the complaints about homework, chapel, and not getting home until at least 5:30 every night, I now look back and I can say that I wouldn't have changed a thing about the last 7 years I spent here. To all the lifers – after seven long years of cadets, it's finally over! And to the whole leafs night/shinny crew – Killa Tilla (whatever happened to the days of CoD and Little Fighter 2!), T-King (without you the raptors would be lost), Miklas ("you dumb?"), Housser (our newly converted leafs fan), VandeMark, Kesmoooooo, and Willy SD; you guys helped make this year one I will remember forever; and whatever anybody says, the cup is coming home next year, where it belongs. Boo Sens. To my other close friends –Yates (I can't believe a person like you even exists), Bean (representing the D Unit), Jo Gho (our Oscar for the Salesman should be coming soon), and Duncan (I am still waiting for my invitation to your house! You're education must continue): you guys should be bigger leaf fans, but nonetheless it's been memorable. I want to wish all you guys the best of luck next year as we go our separate ways. I'd also like to give a special thanks to my parents for pushing me always to do my best, and their continued support over the years. And to my brother Mark, remember me when you go big and are on the set of Mr. Jingles 2. And finally I would like to thank Nicolas Cage for inspiring me by being as close as a human can come to a god.

My time here at St. Andrew's College has come to an end, and I can't help but think back and realize how amazing this journey has been. When I first came to this school, I hated it. But after seven years I eventually learned to like it and learned how to develop into a young man. First and foremost I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to experience all that I have at St. Andrew's, for supporting me one hundred per cent, for guiding me in the right direction and for always being there for me. I love you and I thank you. During the past seven years of my life at St. Andrew's I have met new people, gained new friendships, and have many great memories to prove it. When my parents decided for me that I was going from my precious Mexico to SAC, I was not the most happy kid. ## David Jang

Nick Names: Janger, DJ, and Godfather Activities : First Football, First Basketball, First badminton, SACKA, Pipes and Drums, Cadet Band First Flute I learned a lot of things after I became a student at SAC, not just the academic stuff, but also the life skills. I'll never regret that I chose SAC over other private or public schools. SAC has provided a lot of different opportunities to try new things, provide leadership, and teamwork. The memories at SAC will be the best memories in my entire life. First of all, I really thank God, parents, and the teachers to let me experience, and graduate this school. I have few things to mention to the teachers. Mr. Walden who was trying to get me all the time, I knew you were trying to help me and teach me a lesson that will benefit my future, but I hated you. Mr. Perrier who was my basketball coach, Math teacher, and Housemaster, thank you very much for helping and understanding me all the time. I love your sarcasm. Also Ms. Perrier, Mr. Godkin, Mr. te Bokkel, Mr. Service, Ms Auger, Ms Thorne, and to all those teachers who have taught me, I thank you very much, and I also apologize for missing your classes so many times. Finally I cannot forget mentioning the friends that I had at SAC. My room mate Rhino, Mem grads, Dong ho, Kenneth, DK, Kang, JJ, Soo, Charles, Alex, John J, Chee, Edward, and Gavin. My SAC life wouldn't have been fun without you guys. Furthermore to all the SACKA guys, I love you guys all.

First of all I would like to thank my parents for sending me to this fabulous place, St' Andrews college . My four years at SAC was nothing but enjoy and memories, which will be remembered for the rest of my life. Coming here to SAC was one of the best decision I have made so far in my life. I am very sure that the experience and skills learned here is unmatchable by other schools. My times here as a boarder was very fun especially living with a house full of boys because you will never know when someone will be doing something funny or stupid. Most of all there is no place in the world that is more fun then living with your school friends. I would like to thank Mr. McCue and Mr. Burton for looking after me in Flavelle house, Mr. McCue was both my advisor and house master for four years who helped me through tough times. I need to thank some of my friends and family who supported and encouraged me when I had my bad days in school.

Harrison Jones

Activities: pipes n drums, 1st football (captain, MVP), 1st hockey (Triple Crown), Track & Field, Had some pretty sweet times, some ok times, n some bad times, and a lot of other times that were pretty cool but not really, then some times that were sweet….kinda. Drumming was friggin' sweet, always had good times with those guys. Most people name everybody who was a part of their time at SAC. I don't really feel like doing that. Everyone who's my buddy knows they're my buddy and they don't need a grad comment to confirm that fact. As for the teachers who influenced me, I'm pretty sure they figured out by now that I appreciated what they did while I was here. Thanks.

Charles Jung

Nicknames: C.J., Siege Tank Activities: JV Basketball, Assistant Head of House in Flavelle, Mac House Captain. Although there are many things in life we cannot control, I am truly grateful that it was not my choice to attend St. Andrew's College. If it were not for my parents, I would never have been through the S.A.C. experience. I have never regretted my decision in staying here for what seemed like a very short 3 years. The friends I made here, the experiences that I went through, I would not have been able to do it anywhere else. And for that I truly want to thank my parents, my friends and my teachers. By living in Flavelle House I have learned something which I cannot ever forget. That there are many life lessons to be learned and that I'm a young man with so much more to learn inside and outside the classroom. I want to thank Mr. McCue, my housemaster, for doing more for me than he probably knows. And once more I'd like to thank all of my friends for teaching me many things. I can say with confidence that I leave St. Andrew's a wiser man. It's been an unbelievable time. Thanks S.A.C.

Robert Kaptyn

I've attended SAC for seven years or 21 terms. Believe it or not, which I still can't, I will miss the time I spent in band with Baer, Peter, Bonner, Healy, Duncan, Scott, Eric and all the others. Edmonson, we'll always be buds because of Clapton and Waters, when are we going to see them again? I'll never forget chillin wit b-cal in the gallery, in the upper deck in jays games, 9-2 b-cal! Rippin' around in the 'BMB'. Next year I will be heading off to the University of Western where I have been accepted to the Richard Ivey School of Business. I would like to thank my parents for providing me with the great opportunity to attend SAC. I would like to thank my sister Samantha for the countless hours she spent trying to get me to listen to rap, and never succeeding. I would like to thank my brother Alex for leading the way for me all these years; I couldn't have done it without you. Papa your all business, and I have you to thank for my business sense. In closing I would like to share a few things I have learned in the last seven years: To give peace a chance. That the answers blowing in the wind. Dignity's never been photographed. We're goin' all the way till the wheels fall off and burn. Long you live and high you fly, and smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry, and all you touch and all you see, is all you life will ever be. May the wind always be at your back and the sun upon your face, and may the wings of destiny carry you aloft to dance with the stars. Peace SAC... Rob John Kaptyn

As my S.A.C. career finally comes to a close, and as I make the transition into University at Laurier next year, I realise how great my experience has been at this school. When I first came in 2003, I was unsure about where this school might have taken me, but I am glad to find 4 years later that it sent me in a direction I would've never expected. This school has done wonders for me and has helped me discover who I am as a person. It's been a good run for the last four years, and I've had some of the best times of my life. DMIK, Baer, Bonn, Tiller, Kinger, OLAD, CMAC, all leafs night, raps night, and ELB boys, take care, and although I'll be seeing a few of you next year, the rest of you enjoy everything your university has to offer and keep in touch. To Mr. Numa, you're the best chico! Thanks for everything you have done for me over the years, whether it be on the volleyball court, within the Numa Bunch, or in the classroom, you've truly been an inspiration to me, as well as everyone in the Numa Bunch. I'd like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity for such an amazing education, with all of the sacrifices they make I hope I've made them proud. Numa Bunch, thanks for a great four years. It's been a pleasure and I look forward to seeing most of you again next year. Take it easy everyone. Hasta Luego.

It's been a blast! I leave the school with memories of math contests, strings orchestra, and the cadet band. I salute you for the memories, Mr. Biasi. I will never forget the discussions about current events in our politics class - baseball games, hockey games, school parties, and your car. I thank my parents, my friends, and my teachers for shaping me into who I am today – it's all your fault. As for Flavelle and Mr. McCue, I loved this house. With no restriction whatsoever I was free to do what I wanted. We had the best time and I will miss you. See ya, St. Andrew's College. I will run around somewhere else now.

I used to complain about the life at SAC like dining hall food, or the boarding life, housemasters, demerits, or anything small like that but now that I'm graduating I can finally step away from all that and see the bigger picture. No matter who you are, no matter where you're from, no matter who your parents are, you'll always be an Andrean, my brother. That sounds like some cheesy school propaganda, but if there's one thing I want to leave this place with, it wouldn't be a graduating certificate, or a tie, or a trophy, it would be your friendship. I love you guys and I'm honoured to have been a part of something greater than myself. Thanks for an amazing high school experience. I'll never forget each and one of you.

We had some great battles out on that field and I'll never forget you guys. Thanks to the shinny crew who endured all the blood, sweat, and frozen tears out there on the Quad rink. You find out a lot about a person's character when he laces up the skates, grabs a stick, and plays some good ol' fashioned puck. Thanks to the Maple Leafs crew who met with me every Saturday night to cheer on our boys in blue… it's nice to know I'm not the only one who somewhat loses… alright TOTALLY loses his temper if the Leafs have a bad night. I still cannot believe that I am graduating in 2 months! It was a really hard decision to repeat high school again in a different country, but I can say that coming to SAC was the greatest decision I have ever made without any hesitation. SAC offered me a great deal that I could never have experienced if I had stayed only in Korea. I have made a lot of friends from all around the world which would never have happened in Korea, also I could find a niche in Squash. Mr. and Mrs. Perrier, thank you for your continued support under any condition, even though I was not a 'model' student. Mr. Rush, of course, thank you for your support in Squash. Mr. Swan, thank you very much for helping me to get in to such a great college. Plus, as a member of SACKA, I truly appreciate what SACKA has done for me. When I arrived at SAC, because of my humble abilities in English. I thought it was going to be really tough to adjust here at SAC. I will definitely miss my roommate Dongho and Kang, weirdo DK, Korean leader David Jang, basketball star CJ, JJ, Myung, and the other Koreans for sure. Also, many Mexicans, especially Iker and Alejandro, and Memorial housemates Tait, James 'mouse' Goddard, JD, Wolfi, and bunch of other guys who were in Memorial house, I will miss you.
Next year, I am going to NYU. Come visit me guys! Mom and Dad, thank you for everything !!

Edward Lee

Edward graduates after four enjoyable years at St. Andrew's. Of St. Andrew's, he says, he has learned something other than being a total nerd. Yes, this is the school that encourages you in academics, but seeing 500 nerds is not a good scene. Edward is looking forward next year to a co-ed student body and using his exceptional charm. As a hard-working student, we shall follow his progress with interest as he enters the BMOS program at Western.

Eric Lee

An Elders Club member, Eric has participated in rep football, some pipes and drums, some community service, and weight training. Next year, we hope that he enjoys the BBA program at Wilfrid Laurier University.

Firstly, a huge appreciation goes to my parents, giving me an opportunity to study in one of the best private schools in Canada. I couldn't have made it up until now without the care and support to the fullest extent from my parents. To all my teachers, especially my grade 12 teachers, Ms. Thorne dealing with the Koreans in chemistry, Mr. Walden's Asian tribes and the countless UA's, Mr. Te Bokkel's whining stats class and the maple syrups; I will never forget those moments. Mr. Inglis and Mr. Ramon, thanks for the care that you've put through each and one of us; Sifton felt like my second home. Thank you Mr. Paolini and Mr. Swan for your guidance and support. Although only spending two years at St. Andrew's, I would have to say I experienced every teenagers dream school life. Not only was I given countless opportunities in athletics, music, art and leadership, I also received the best education, fully preparing me for university. Coming to SAC has given me a wider perspective, and I feel like I am more mature and independent than before. The passionate hockey and football games, the spirited Pep rallies, the fruitful Chapel sermons, the touching carol service, the fun FOCUS festival, the intense shinny games on the quad rink…etc I will always remember these wonderful moments. More importantly, I have gained precious friendships. To my best buddies, Henry, Joseph, Garrick, Emerson, Kinson, Alex, Wu, Barney, Johnny, B-Chan, Dustin and Wilson, thanks for always being there for me, and giving me such a wonderful senior year! To the class of 07, I hope you will all have an enjoyable and fruitful university life, and hope we will keep in touch! Mr. and Mrs. Perrier, Mr. Godkin, Mr. Paolini, Ms. Thorne, Mr. Inglis, Mr. Butcher, Mr. Jones, Mrs. Silcox and Mr. Swan, it was a pleasure to meet you all, I will definitely treasure everything you guys taught me! Last but not least, mom and dad, thank you for letting me choose and come to SAC, I love you guys! Two years is already enough to make me a proud Andrean, I am and always will be one. Thank you St. Andrew's for giving me the time of my life!

My brief career at S.A.C. has been enriching to a degree that I would not even attempt to describe in words. The experiences I've had—be it acting in a major production, winning championships, or adventuring through Kenya—have instilled in me the skills and confidence that will undoubtedly serve as a foundation in which to build future successes upon. I would like to thank Mr. Scoular for "picking me out of the gutter and making me a star," acting has been way too much fun. To my father and good friend, your guidance and unrelenting belief in me has been my greatest motivation over the years, thank you for everything…and Mom, thanks for putting up with me. Boys, it's been a blast hanging out with all of you, keep in touch. Push the envelope.

To my friends: GHynds (for staying loud and proud through all 7 years), Beaner (for the most complicated guys handshake in history and for paying me 10 bucks to change into summer dress), Scotty G & Kiefer (for Skyline Productions) Chonger and Enger (for being Double S □ smart and short), Charlos & Winnie to Pooh Yuen (for Taiwanese representation), Jamie (for having my back), Dave (for me calling you Dave instead of Dennis), Jenny Justin & Wilson & Garrick (for the "GG" AZN population), and Will-man & Tyler & all fellow lifers (for pinecone baseball and being part of such a special experience). I thank you guys for making each day much happier. To those members of the faculty who've been there to provide valuable lessons and advice to keep me sane through all the good times and the bad: Mr. Ruscitti, Señor Numa, Mrs. Marsh, Mr. Jones, Mr. Swan, and many others, I thank you for all the help you've given me. To my parents, who've always been there to support me throughout school life and beyond, I really hope I've been able to make you proud after you made the smart decision to send me here. To my brother Stan, try to not cause any more trouble for mom and dad eh? Finally, even though all good things must come to an end, these great memories will be cherished forever. S.A.C for life.

To my best friends, in alphabetical order so I don't offend anyone, Adrian, Barney, Emerson, Garrick, Johnny, Joseph, Nic and Shingo, thank you for making this place a home away from home. Also my house masters, Mr. Galajda, Mr. Day, Mr. T, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Inglis, and Mr. Ramon, thank you guys for being the most understanding father figures anyone could ask for. Special thanks to Mr. Paolini for not gating me for the countless times I was late to his art class. At this point, half of the people reading this comment are asleep, so anyway.. It has really been a blast and if I could do it all over again, I wouldn't.. because I really want to go to university and hang out with the ladies. Seriously, it's hard to believe I'm graduating. Walker, The Entire Art Class Crew (even the ones I don't know the names of)

My time at St. Andrew's has been…..long. I've been here since grade 6 and know the school too well. There's a lot of memories I will be taking with me into university like the first time I found out Adib's uncle actually sold Persian Rugs or when Dougy smashed the Honda-rarri/Storm Trooper. I'll also remember all those teachers who gave me a hard time along the way and the ones who have taught me so much. I'll never forget the way Mr. Paolini taught me to paint…well, how he'd always get so mad when Healy would whistle in class, and most of all his I Am The Sea CD which we listened to every class. The way Mr. Scoular would always inspire us to act our hearts out and all the days I was late for Cabaret practice. Other things I'll never forget, Sushi Kui, how bad Arsenal is and how great Chelsea is, All-Star Wings, St. Louis, all the parties, and all the days spent in a suit. I will never forget any of these things, but I will forget all the times I went to class. I'd also like to thank my parents for spending money to smarten their kid up, and all the support they've given me along the years. I hope University is another amazing experience. One last thing that I will never forget, SSSSAAAAMMMMMM!!!! I'll see you in Politics Lebar.

Campbell Mauchan

Nicknames: Mauch, Mauchan, Chef Activities: First Football(2a), JV Hockey, First Rugby(2a) Captain(1a) Ramsey House Lieutenant, AP Organizers. Coming to St. Andrews in Grade 11 was both the most difficult, but also the best decision I have ever made up unto this point in my life. I had never experienced a place or a group of guys that were so tightly knit. I am so grateful to all of the boys at the school but especially my very close friends, I think you know who you are. I was able to share so many good times with all of you, whether it be on the sports field to in school or some unmentionable after school activities. Being at St. Andrew's has been the best experience of my life and can only hope that the next four years are anywhere near as good as the last two. I could not have accomplished as much or had as much fun without the support of all my amazing friends, I am going to miss you boys. As well as the support within the school from my advisor and two sport coach Mr. Shields. Along my teachers and coaches, Mr. Butcher, Mr. Shrimpton, Mr. Stewart just to name a few that I had the pleasure of being coached or taught by for both years at SAC. Last but not least none of this could have been possible without the support of my loving parents, Vicki and Craig Mauchan. I could not have asked for more than what I have received in my two years at S.A.C. Thank You, St. Andrew's College.

As my SAC career is winding down, I'd just want to say thanks to all the boys for making it an amazing 4 years of high school. I would rhyme off a bunch of names but I'm not the type of person to leave anyone out…the whole grade 12 class has been a buddy of mine. To all the teachers, especially my advisor Ms. Thorne, housemaster Mr. Shields, and my sports coaches Mr. Perowne, Mr. Macpherson, Mr. Gurr, Mr. Shrimpton, Mr. Robson, and Mr. Reid, thanks for everything over the years and helping me develop into a 3 sport athlete. To my brothers, Brendon and Clinton, they were big footsteps to follow, and I hope I did you guys proud. And lastly, thanks to my parents, who without their support I wouldn't be the kind of guy I am today. Thanks so much for the opportunity to grow up in the lifestyle I have had, you've meant so much. So now I say Goodbye St. Andrews, and its been a great ride. Cheers! I will always be an Andrean…

Douglas McDonald

Nicknames: Dougie, Dougie Fresh, Fresh, and Daaggg (thanks Adib).
Activities: 1st Football, Pipes and Drums, Weight Training, Triathlon, Focus, & Middle School House Captain. As my lengthy career at Saint Andrews begins to end, I am forced to remember all the unbelievable experiences, and acquaintances that I've had over the past 7 years. I would like to take this opportunity, to send a special thanks, to everyone who guided me through my journey at S.A.C: my parents and family; your support –despite my passionate lack of cooperation- was always unwavering, Mr. D. Stewart (Head of the History Department), your endless advice helped me get through the many rough patches during my upper school career, Mrs. Robson, and your passion for Grammar, and Mr. Shrimpton, for your support during my two years on first football –an experience I will truly never forget. To my friends and peers: I know at times not all of my actions were thoroughly thought through, but thank you for everything. Furthermore, a special thanks to: Will (your consistent -yet necessary- judgement has prevented me from doing a lot of things I would have regretted; as well, for your love of great music –and finding real meaning behind it), Shmans (If I ever needed to be punched…you were always there for me bud), Shones (thank you for unintentionally inspiring me, your philosophy of not caring for anything was truly a beautiful thing), Guerry ( TABLE SPOON…You've always been a great friend –despite your hatred towards NIN and Tool) Legiti (Always a good laugh…see you in the business world big guy), and Adib (Shleeb, thanks for everything). Thanks to everyone, this experience has been truly unforgettable; I will, forever be an Andrean. P.S: SSAAAMMM!

Anthony Melchior

Nicknames: CHEEZY!, Cheese, MelQueezy, Melch, Melcman, Tib's, Melvin. Activities: Swimming, U-16 Football, FOCUS, Kenya Initiative, Flavelle House Floor Captain, Basketball, avid in the Weight Room, SUSHI, WINGS, Buddha, late night cruises in explory or HUMM. The past 4 years of my life I have lived, breathed and ate at St. Andrew's. Throughout my time here there have been many ups and downs and I have had a lot of mixed emotions, but in the end it was all worth it. Living on campus here has given me a lot of opportunity to find myself. I've made a lot of good friends which I know ill keep for life and I've learned a lot of valuable lessons through classes and daily life lessons. Mr. Scoular's and his interesting lessons in class helped make the year more enjoyable and I really felt he's given some important pointers about living in the real world. Without my friends; Kieller, Neil, Gron, Olad, Berg, R.S.S, Healy, Hopkin's and especially Matt and dMO, these years would not have meant half as much to me as they have. I have made more friends than I can count here, but these ones I feel I have become the closest with. I've enjoyed the time I spent playing B-Ball in Bedard, throwing the lacrosse ball around on the quad, or going to the weight room with dMO and J.Hop. I really appreciate the guidance Mr. McCue has given to me, but also the freedom he has allowed for me to learn about stuff on my own. I leave St. Andrew's with more knowledge than I could have ever asked for and believe it has prepared me well for the world ahead. Thanks Boys. See you all around.

David Miklas

Nicknames: Mik, Mikle, Miklepoo, DMik, Sauce, MIKLAAAS, Mikleton I could talk about the accomplishments of my grades, sports, and musical ability in this grad comment, but that is really not important. The friends I have made and people I have met is, and will always be, the greatest accomplishment I have achieved at SAC. The people you associate yourself with is one of the most satisfying ways of finding yourself. I would like to thank the friends I have made throughout my journey at St. Andrew's. Almost every person in our graduating class has had some sort affect on me throughout the years. Personally, I would like to start by thanking my parents and grandparents for giving me this amazing opportunity to receive such a prestigious education, and for always being there when I needed you. To my two brothers, Andrew and Jason, who I could always count on even in the worst of times. I would also love to list off almost every one of you graduates, but unfortunately I have to keep the list short. The Leafs night gents; Josh, Wes (makes a large minority of the memories I have at SAC), Greg, Will, Duncan, Housser, King, Kest, Yates, and even though he never showed up, D'Antonio. Mike Yoon, we played way too much NHL '07 in Chem. Thornhill's Finest (greatest place to live), you know who you are. The man who I could count on the most, Baer, we've had many good times. I would also like to thank a few teachers for making my time at St. Andrew's a great experience. Mr. Inglis, Mr. Butcher, Ms. Thorne, and Mr. Stewart. Finally, to my advisor Mr. MacDonald, I never really had any personal issues to address you with, but I know you would be there for me if I did. To the younger grades out there, don't be anxious to graduate. It's ok to be excited, but cherish every moment of your high school career, because these are some of the greatest moments of your life. To the graduating class, good luck with whatever you end up doing, and hopefully I'll see you all soon.

I've been here at S.A.C. for quite a few years now. Every year it seems like I've been making more and more of a connection with all my friends around me, and the school itself. I've lived in a few different houses, and taken in different things from all of them. Special thanks to the Perriers, and to Mr. McCue. They were both always there to help with anything. And I'm not gonna lie, there's been times that I didn't think I was gonna make it out of this place. But here I am, graduating as a scholar… who would of thought? I had a lot of good times here. From all the Wednesday afternoon adventures, wherever I ended up; To all the school events, dances, and AP's… gotta love 'em. Shout outs to Cheesy, Kieller, Munro, Tait, Brown-Rat, Iks, and Neil. Can't forget my boys from past years – Pato, Fernando, Tipping, Zub, Adit, and Khatits. I'll never forget all the times rollin' in the 4Run, Explorer, Green Monster, & Red Rocket. Last but not least, I need to thank my parents. For keeping me in here for all these years and supporting me through whatever had happened, and trust me, things happened. These past 5 years at S.A.C. have flown by like nothing. I'M OUT!

My friends that surround me have made the St. Andrew's I know, and will stay with me forever with the memories I have made with you all. I wouldn't even know where to start, but I do know I can't put it into words here. To my boys: Melchior, Kieller, dMO, Healy, Tozzi, Pete, Lebar, Boyd, Tait, Dyl, Baer, Calvert, RSS, Adel, Philip, Ladi, Henny, Jacobsen. I wont forget you guys, along with everyone else in my spares, classes and sports. I'll never forget times like homecoming, grad trip, springfest, focus and ones I can barely remember, like formal! Also to the teachers who make this place special: Mrs. K, Mr. Shrimpton, Mr. Inglis, Miss. Thorne, Mr. Scoular, Mr. Numa and Mr. Day. This all wouldn't have been without my parents. Mom, Dad and Ty, thank you for your support and everything you have given me. I wouldn't have changed any of it, these are the best years of my life and I am happy to say St. Andrew's has been a part of it. Thanks boys!

Colin Murphy

I rarely tend to appreciate the significance of departure and change until I've departed and the changes have already occurred; as a result, I've never been one to say an adequate goodbye. I'd like to think that, after my four years here, I'm now finally able to understand exactly how much I'll miss this place. Here's an attempt at a goodbye and a thank you. To my parents: I'm at a loss for words. I could not have chosen two more nurturing, caring, wonderful, intelligent, and interesting parents. Thank you for everything you have done – I would not be where I am today without you two. Meginha: You have been a real inspiration, a great sister, and an even greater friend. See you at Yale next year! Greg: Starsky and Hutch for life. Don't change, and keep true to your beliefs – you are you, and don't forget that. Alon: Beleza, m'irmão! Despite the distance, you've still been there for me and I really appreciate that. Best of luck in Israel – don't forget about your best friend back West. Sung: Montreal (no explanation necessary). Long live the queen! Thom: I hear New England is full of British girls. Good times – see you next year. Stockermans: We'll discuss it over a schmey (and maybe a coffee). Ligeti: Be sure to put that baritone voice to good use. I expect to hear great things from you. To all faculty, in particular Mr. Rush, Mr. Scoular, Mr. McCue and Mr. Swan: Thank you for everything; you have all had an enormous impact on me throughout these four years. Farewell, St. Andrew's – this is truly an incredible place.

Joseph Ng

Names: Joseph Ng, Jo, Joey Activities: 1st / U16 Badminton, U16 Tennis, President of CCS, Sifton Lieutenant I remember four years ago when I first came to Canada, first arrived at the gates of St. Andrew's, and first time living in residences with two roommates. The school has a nice campus, as well as students with school spirit, and everything is nice. Throughout these years, there had been hard times with work, with friendship, with relationships. At the end, no matter what turns out, the school, its faculty and students, have always been there, supporting me. Thank you, teachers and housemasters, for taking care of me and many other students in the school. I still can't believe I am leaving this place without coming back in anytime soon. The last Carol Service, the last Cadet Inspection – I still remember the sudden feeling of ending something that I have been doing for the past four years, and I never get to do them again. St. Andrew's College is certainly a unique place, and will always be part of my memories. Wish all the best to my very best friends of the graduating class – Adrian, Brian, Emerson, Henry, Garrick, Johnny, Kinson, Nic, Wilson. Keep in touch, even though we are going to end up in different schools. Take good care and best of luck!

Johnny Ng

I am sometimes known as 7, however, this name is rarely used now. I would like to thank Nancy a lot for cleaning my very messy room all these years (sorry for never keeping it clean), Mr. and Mrs. Perrier for the countless house barbeques and after-study kitchen (that is what makes Memorial house better than others!), Mr. Giel for being my advisor and taking us out for advisory dinner instead of lunch (very thoughtful), Mr. Prezens for being a very nice teacher (I love your textbooks) and Mr. Walden and Ms. Thorne for being my coach. I would like to also thank Wilson, Dustin, Alex, Brian, Emerson, Kinson, Zi, and especially Henry, Nic, Garrick and Joseph for being there for me. It means a lot to me because it is from you guys where I understood what friendship is — the acceptance of each other for being who they are. You made my highschool life a highlight of my life. Good luck at uni!

Michael Nowicki

Nicknames: Nowicki, Nowicks, Nowickers, Small Nickers

My time at St. Andrew's has felt like a lifetime on it's own. I have never stayed at one place for such a long time, but the six years here at St. Andrew's have been unforgettable. It's difficult to believe that the friends that I've had during my time at St. Andrew's, like Graham, Kiefer, Stockermans, Bean, Chong, Kesteris, King, Walker and everyone else will be all over the world, so you all better stay in touch. To Mr. Numa, thank's for putting up with me for the last 3 year's having to coach me, telling me "You had an invitation to dinner, AND YOU MISSED DINNER!", but these witty one liners helped me develop mentally for on and off the court. Mr. Butcher, although I still have no clue what's going on in grade 12 physics, I'm sure it will help me out in the long run compared to other students who didn't get the same experience. Mr. Day, the French classes since grade 9 have been among the most fun classes during my time at St. Andrew's. For my parents, thanks for sacrificing so much to send me to St. Andrew's, the time spent here has been amazing and I owe it all to you.

Justin Oh

This is my fifth year at SAC. There has been ups and downs during the way, but I learned a lot. Mr. Walden and Mr. Inglis truly cared for me and guided me well. SAC gave me opportunities that I would have never had at different places. I was involved with squash, badminton, wind ensemble, string ensemble and many other things. Such experiences made me more well rounded. Also living in Sifton house under great housemaster, Mr. Inglis, I learned to be independent and made some great friends, that I wish to contact after graduating. I think I am ready for next year at University. Although I am leaving SAC, I will always remember SAC.

Ryan Oh

Nicknames: Rhino, Oh, O-Ra, Tayshaun Prince Activities: JV Soccer (2006 CISAA Silver Medal), String Ensemble Leader, CISMF First Violin (05'~07'), Memorial Company Warrant Officer, St. Andrew's College Korean Association (SACKA), Boarding House Soccer League Champion (05'), Boarding House Basketball League Champion (06'), SACAFL It's been quite a turbulent three years here at St. Andrew's, but it was also the best times of my life. In no other school, no other place did I ever have so much fun. I've really changed, in a positive way, from all the SAC experience. To be honest, when I first landed here I wasn't really sure if I was in the right place. But now I gladly say that SAC is where I belong. Thank you mom and dad for giving me this opportunity and supporting me in everything I have done. And special thanks to my grandma for paying all my tuition! Mr. and Mrs. Perrier, I cannot say how much I appreciate all your help and advice (and food!). Thank you so much for guiding me through my SAC life. You are really the mother and father of all the boys in Memorial House. I'm thankful and proud that I'm in Memorial. Thank you to all my teachers. I would've really struggled without all of your help. Mr. Tebokkel, call me when you need some youngblood in the math department. Thank you Mr. McCue and Mr. Manning for bringing the JV soccer team to such a successful season (it would've been perfect with a gold medal). Apologies to all the people I forgot to mention, but I really thank everyone for providing me with a beautiful life in SAC. DJ, DK, JJ, CJ, Dongho, Soo-Hwan, Kenneth, Gavin, and all my Korean brothers, my life at SAC would've been meaningless without all of you. Congratulations to the Class of 2007 for a successful year. Just keep on doing what you're doing. Good luck with whatever you do in the future.

To be honest, coming to a place named St. Andrew's College was the best decision I never made. It was a decision made by my parents, who believed that their son needed an education superior to the public system. This great experience could not have happened without all the great friends I made over my 4 years at this school. To my boys: Bergs, Gronsac, Lord Nelson, Leak, T-Walk, AAAHHMIIIIIIN, DMO, Cheese, Nizrat, Rizzo, Rattle, JV, EEKS, BCAL, CLUE, Petey P, RKEST, Bonner, Mauch and many more. To my teachers: Mr. Numa (who never taught me, but motivated me through difficult times), Mr. Biasi, Mr. Gurr, Mr. Kitagawa, Mr. Shields, Mr. Butcher, Mr. Godkin, Mr. Perrier, Mr. Shrimpton (my mentor and always a positive voice in my career at St. Andrews), Mr. Day and Ms. Thorne (two 4 year teachers, who helped channel my energy into something somewhat positive), My Advisor Mr. Robson (who I could always count on to help whenever there was something wrong) and My Housemasters Mr. McCue and Mr. Burton (for helping me to become a well rounded leader, and for providing a father like figure while I was away from home). My whole St. Andrews experience would not have been as memorable without all of the people here. As I now pass the torch to the class of 2008 (Zech, Hale, Shane, Wally, J-Hop?), I hope you all take the time to cherish your last year at St. Andrews. I will never forget how this school has prepared me for the real world, and I will always be an Andrean.

At first coming to St. Andrew's College wasn't something I was really looking forward to, but now as I have gone through my time here it's going to be difficult to leave this place. I have made some great friends along the way, friends like these are really hard to come by and for that I'm really grateful(you guys know who you are). The thing I will remember the most of my time here at S.A.C is winning the Rugby championship at UCC with the same group of guys who I've been with since my U16 rugby days and losing 3 championships 2 of them to UCC at UCC. To my family, Mom thanks for all the support you have given me throughout my whole life without you I would have never even heard of S.A.C. Dad, thanks for everything you have done for me and the rest of the family you have created a pathway of success for all of us and you always taught me to reach for excellence. I obviously don't know about this school deep enough since I've been SAC only for a year. However, I have very good feelings of this school and no regrets. I truly thank Mr. McCue who is my house master and Mr. Swan who is our university counsellor. This school has given me many lessons for my life and I will consider them seriously. I now say thank my parents for putting me here since I know it is not easy to put in SAC. Thank you all of you guys.

Since I first started my adventures as a SAC boy I have made the best friendships, had countless memories, and have been able to make school fun. As hard as that is to believe its true… I have made the greatest friends anyone could ask for at SAC… friendships that last through thick and thin, the good times and the bad, and friendships that will continue when we leave the gates. I would like to thank all my teachers, housemasters, coaches, staff members, and my advisor for everything they have done…and I would like to thank all of my friends for making these years so memorable; popo, lord nelson, leke, bergs, twalk, dcole, calvert, jtozz, dmo, melch, and everyone else … good luck to everyone…and we better keep in touch!

What can I say? I'm done High school! Today was the last day that I ever have to wear the Number #1 at school. It's weird that I have spent the last 5 years of my life here. I'd like to relish in every memorable moment; like on my first day, when I walked around the halls with a notepad making sure I remember what I was doing. The time in grade 8 when the house master was about to walk in with a tour…FUN. Grade 9 through 10, was an just a big Italian bruise. Grade 11, when someone moved out of the way of a large container of soup. The first time the I drove through the gates in my car, or ran past them…with my feet. The first time Ashley came to my life, what a weekend. The orgy of good times that I had here with all of friends will never be forgotten. So Thanks SAC. All of this or a Bentley.... I'd take this any day…nah…A nice '07 Bentley Continental GT…Yeee!

William Samson-Doel

Over the years S.A.C. has attempted to teach me physics, calculus, music, and long division… they did not succeed. But through S.A.C. I learned an important lesson: to take advantage of every opportunity that comes my way. I've been involved in Focus, the school play, lacrosse, track, football, volleyball, squash, hockey, and cadets. But the best parts have been the trips. Through S.A.C. I've experienced the zeal of Spain, the laid back life in Australia, helped build a schoolhouse in Kenya, and found my passion at a political conference in beautiful Guatemala. These trips each had a tremendous impact on my life. But these do not compare to the impact my good friends had on me. Where would I be without the compound of intellect that is Guery Goyo, or the 'who cares what people think' attitude of Douglas McD, or the high energy of Harrison Jones who can't sit down for over a minute?… but seriously, they've been there. And to the rest of them: Shmannzedez Benz, G Vandy, WesT, Ty King, Yoon, AWu, S.Giroux, BCal, Kesmo and all the others, it's been a blast. Mom and Dad, thanks for sending me here, I've got no idea who I would be if I went somewhere else. Patty, thanks for setting the bar high and pushing me all those years to better myself, I hated it then but I'm grateful now. Eric, You taught me so many things about philosophy, music, hockey and just life, things I never would have learned without you. Jessy, thanks for keeping me centered, letting me know when I've been a jerk. In the end, I can't think of a single regret. I wouldn't have wanted this any other way.

Rainer Schwilden

Nickname: The Rainman, RAINER, Germany, Chubby Activities: Fall Play 'Cabaret', Proud Member of the Weight Training Program, Siftonian, 4 Week Football Player For me the decision to come to SAC for one year, was the best thing I could have probably done in my life. This year showed me how much fun school and learning can actually be. There was not one Student, Faculty or Staff member, that didn't help me with any of my problems at any time and to many of them I have a really good relationship. This is a thing I never experienced before at a school. I will never forget my short but very forming stay here and everyone who influenced me during this school year. I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity and the support to visit the St. Andrew's College and I want to give many thanks to all of my teachers, who really had a huge impact on me. Thanks to Mr. Scoular, who showed me how much fun literature can be, Dr. Joiner, who taught me to analyze everything in a geographical way, Mr. Numa, for giving me the best Spanish lessons of my whole life, Mr. Perrier, for guiding me through the dangers of logarithms and exponential functions, Mr. McCue, for teaching me how to drum and always being there for a good talk, Mr. Butcher, as my advisor, for helping me with every problem I got, my housemasters Mr. Inglis and Mr. Ramon for having an eye on me and every student all the time and making me feel like at home, and last but not least my best friends Mouse, Bobby, Charles, Alejandro, Tim for being there for me all the time and for all the stuff we experienced here. Without all of you, my stay here would have been very different and I would have never enjoyed it that much. Thank you all very much for giving me the experience of my life.

Michael Stockermans

Nicknames: Stox, Stocker Activities: Bagpipes, Cabaret (drama play), Mac House Captain. Saying: "what you saying?", "don't worry bout it bud", "meet me at the steps", "I can take em". Being at St. Andrews showed me the meaning of being a brother. I've made friends here that will last a lifetime. My time here made me end up knowing that you have people that will be there for you. Through all the chapel's, and cadet practices that I loathed, it all turns out to be an accomplishment. This is a place to be proud of for your whole life.

John Stoneman

John has been at St. Andrew's six years. He received recognition this year for being one of the few boarding graduates to have not received a single boarding demerit and to have met every chapel commitment. He has participated in Pipes & Drums, Varsity Football, Wt. Training and Baseball and junior rugby. As you can see, John has gone from Little John to Big John, and so the Queen's football staff will be delighted to welcome him in the Fall.

Alexander Sung

Nicknames: Sung, Colonel, Boot Camp, Cadet Kelly, Tom Young Cruise, Spike. Activities: Cadets, HCWDBs. Sayings: "Every day is Cadet day!" "Shmeyyy!" "Stand Steel" " Don't even worry about it there bud." "Yes, I am Spike from HCWDBs" I cannot believe my time here at St. Andrew's is coming to an end. It really does seem like yesterday when I drove past the gates for the first time. My time here has meant so much to me. I have learned so much. Especially through the Cadet Corps. I think it is appropriate to at least dedicate a few sentences to the Corps. St. Andrew's truly creates the best cadets in Canada. To my Cadets, I hope I have served you well as the 102nd Cadet Commanding Officer. There are so many people I want to thank. I could not have done this without the help and support of my parents, they truly have given me the opportunity to experience everything here at St. Andrew's. To my sister: thank you for helping me out with everything, even the little things. To Major McCue: thank you for all the lessons you have taught me about everything, both the subtle and overt ones. To my boys – thanks for all the good times. Greg, I could not have asked for a better DCO. Thank you for everything. Colin… Montreal. Hahaha

Alexander Sutherand

Nicknames: Kiefer, Bird-Man Activities: SAC Pipes and Drums, Fencing, First Swimming (Assistant Captain), Student ITI My four years at St. Andrew's have been more for me than just an education – they have formed me into the man I am proud to be today. The friends I've made, the teachers I've had, and the experiences I've been through here will stand in my memory as some of the best years of my life. There are so many moments I will remember, like going on the Battlefield Tour in grade 10, all the piping gigs we did (Carol Service, Cadets in Concert, CISMF, etc.) and awesome school events like FOCUS and Homecoming. But what I will miss most leaving St. Andrew's is the atmosphere, the so-called "Andrean Brotherhood." This feeling of camaraderie is one of the things which made my time here so special. To my really close friends – Stockermans, Swenks, Stew, Nowicki, Scott, Bean, Jamie, Chong, Graham, Blin, Will, and Dougie – my time here would have meant nothing without you guys. I'd like to thank Mr. Butcher for blowing my mind in physics and somehow keeping me motivated to go into engineering, Mr. Shields for guiding me through the years, and Ms. Thorne and Mr. Walden for being the two teachers that I always felt I could really talk to, as well as for putting up with all of us at swim practice. I also want to thank my parents for encouraging me to do my best, helping me along the way, and never leaving my side, and finally my grandparents, Nana and Papa, for providing me with the opportunity to come here and supporting me through everything. I can't thank you all enough! I feel that St. Andrew's has truly prepared me for the rest of my life, and I wouldn't trade my time here for anything!

Luc Swenker

St. Andrew's, over the past 4 years has become a very important part of me. There have been good times, there have been bad times. The good times are the times I will be remembering for the rest of my life. I really enjoyed my times learning to play squash and learning how to curl. This past year has meant far more to me, as it was my closing year. I'm very happy with how this year went by, the good times I've had with my friends the good times in Memorial house with the Perrier's who truly are the best housemasters for me. Thanks to all for an incredible closing year.

A haze really, a friggin awesome trip. To everyone that made it worth it, and understood me, my parents, Mr. & Mrs. P, Marnie, the several teachers that put up with my terrible work habits, and to all the guys. Everyone has made it more fun then I would have imagined and for the constant support and patience from everyone around me. To the Memorial Boys, the soccer kids, the ski bums and the Rugby guys, keep it real. Don't let anything distract you. Know what you want and stick to it. Stick it to the man.

Ryan Thom

Nicknames: Thom, RT, ThomRyan, Lu Kang? Activities: First Hockey (CISAA, MPHL & Macpherson Champions), First Football (CISAA Finalists), Outreach Committee, FOCUS ("Reservoir Dogs"). I will never forgive myself for making that fateful decision to leave my home at De La Salle, not because St. Andrew's has not been good to me, but in fact because it has been too good. To force myself to leave this place after just one year is a cruel punishment I could have never expected. Still, expected was word that flew right out the window the day I arrived on campus. For to have foreseen CISAA, MPHL, and Macpherson championships would have put me on a psychic level rivalling Nostradamus. Beyond gold medals, I also met some excellent people: Wolfy, some solid talks every night on the way home from practice, Murphy, all I can think of right now is legs… you realize next year we'll be in New York so often we'll end up transferring to NYU; Braden, we'll live to jam again SRV; Ligeti, "how long are you guys gonna need?"; also, Drager, Boyder, Jacobsen, Ladi, Kaptyn, Greg, Radel, baby Neil, McCullough, and old Soupy. Thanks to the real heroes, Mr. McHenry, Mr. Scoular for having great, great shoes, Mr. Biasi for lifting my average a full 3 per cent, Mr. Kitagawa for giving me a chance to start one of the best defences in high school football, Mr. Shields for the same, and easing on my demerits, Mr. Walden for never questioning my UA excuses, Marnie for saving my finger and lastly to Mr. Costanzo (who will be here next year), enjoy SAC because time really does fly when you're having fun. This place has opened up the gates of the world to me and for that I am endlessly grateful. Good luck to all of you in your future endeavours. I truly hope we will cross paths some ways down the road.

Thank you Mom & Dad, I know the road may have gotten bumpy at times, even times when it felt like I went off a cliff, but I believe the road paved out very smooth in the end. Thank you Mom, Dad, and my two wonderful sisters Ashlee & Veronica. It wasn't until I started writing this paragraph that I realized what an "Andrean" really is. The phrase "Quit Ye Like Men" is no longer a school motto to me, it is now a life motto. When I leave the front gates, I will be taking the greatest life experience I believe I will ever have, with me. Thank you, Andy.

THE LIONS DEN

Housemaster: Mr. Perrier

When the School moved to Aurora in 1926, Memorial House was established as a memorial to those Andreans who perished in World War I. The Memorial Chapel was built in 1931 and remains as a reminder of those who did not grow old. Prior to 1962, grades 12 and OAC occupied Memorial House which was the "senior house". It now houses students in grades 9 to 12.

HEAD OF HOUSE - JAMIE WALKER

Laidlaw House started the '06-'07 year strong and has improved dramatically in many areas of school life. After much hard work (and a timely submission of clan points) the House earned a first-place standing during the 1st term. Since then, House members have continued to work hard by actively participating in the many athletic, academic, and extra-curricular opportunities which the school offers. With the year drawing to a close, House members should congratulate themselves on all of their efforts and achievements, and aim to finish the final weeks strong. One can only hope that Laidlaw House will maintain its reputation for hard work, active participation, and 'unique' sense of spirit both next year and for many years yet to come.

RAMSEY HOUSE

Ramsey House as a whole, has improved greatly during the 2006 – 2007 academic year at St. Andrew's College. In recent years, house spirit was not one of our strengths, however this year, house spirit grew to an all time high. With the leadership of House Master Mr. Greg Shields, Head of House Anthony D'Antonio and the Ramsey House Council, the large group of students pulled through to raise Ramsey's reputation as a dominant house. Weekly house meetings, with Timbits included, gave students information about upcoming events. Monthly pizza lunches held by the House Council promoted house spirit and victories in the clan events boosted up Ramsey's confidence. The largest victory Ramsey was a part of this year, was winning the Spirit Week "Ball Hockey Tournament". Ramsey was victorious over all the other house and faculty teams. All in all, Ramsey brought itself to be well known as one of top houses at St. Andrew's.

St. Andrew's Debating Society 2006-2007

The 2006-2007 school year was a most eventful and satisfying one for the St. Andrew's Debating Society. In addition to hosting the IISPSC, SAC boys participated in over a dozen tournaments and competitions off campus, with our largest contingent of participating members (over 30 in Upper School, and close to 25 in Middle School) in many years. The creation and international sales (!) of our new St. Andrew's Debating tie, no doubt, somehow contributed to this year of great successes.

The Senior Executive; comprised of President Stewart Powell (gr. 12); ably supported by James Walker (12), Radissen Ramoutar (11), Hamad Mirza, (11), Abhinav Raina (11), and Ryan Cole (10), helped Mr. Kyle run weekly sessions. Seniors met every Monday after school, with those preparing for tournaments meeting during lunch hours and beyond. Middle School debaters enjoyed lively Tuesday after school debates. With the help of the executive, for the first time we were able to have three debates going on simultaneously on any given day, allowing for more experience to be gained, especially as tournaments approached.

During the fall, our teams placed well at the St. Clement's Impromptu, and at the first of three Ontario Fulfords at MacLoughlin College in Oakville. Shortly thereafter, Stewart, Ryan, and Radissen (along with the "swing" efforts of Abhinav and Hamad) acquitted themselves, more than admirably, with excellent performances, and rankings among the 157 competitors at our IISPSC. Ryan, with his top 6 overall Canadian placing, earned a spot on the national team which would travel to Cape Town, South Africa, in the spring, for the World Championships. Stewart and Radissen narrowly missed the cut off, but still sought inclusion on that prestigious team. In January, they both came a step closer by qualifying 1st and 5th overall at the Trinity College, Can-West Qualifier from among 60 top Ontario private school debaters and public speakers. This allowed them to join four other ranked Ontarian, senior student public speakers, at the notoriously difficult, February Can-West tournament, at St. John's Ravenscourt in Winnipeg.

This year's Can-West more than lived up to its tough reputation, with top-notch public and private-school competitors representing every Canadian province, save PEI. Andrew Rusk from West Point Grey Academy in BC, (who placed 1st overall at our IISPSC,) eked out a 6th place finish. Other students who placed in the top 10 at IISPSC, failed to qualify this time. Remarkably, Stewart, wound up finishing an impressive 10th overall, ranking 2nd on the Ontario team. SAC was the only Ontario school with two qualifying contestants, with Radissen presenting very well too, finishing in the top 20.

It was nothing short of amazing to hear these senior students able to so easily draw on their intimate knowledge and understanding of various bills of rights, constitutional amendments, global economics (national debts and GDP), world history and conflict, the failures and successes of regimes and NGOs, mission statements and charters of UN, NATO, and NAFTA organizations. The best speakers can seemingly pull out of thin air, just the right biographical detail, famous quote, or amazing statistic to support whatever contention is being argued. And when they are able to improvise with structure and conviction for a full 5 minutes, after only 2 minutes preparation – one can only respond with, "Wow!"

At the end of January, SAC sent teams to both Country Day School and Branksome Hall, on the same day, for separate competitions. In late February, James Walker, Radissen, Kashtin Fitzsimons, and William Egi competed at the 2nd Fulford at Toronto French School and scored well but didn't manage to break into the top 3. The following week, Radissen won the 1st Villanova Senior Grade Public Speaking Competition, with Hamad and Abhinav placing not too far behind.

Mr. Kyle accompanied six Junior and Middle School students to Ottawa for the Junior Provincial Debate championships in early March. Competing in the grade 9 category were Devin Cassidy and Kashtin Fitzsimons. In the grade 8 division, Chris Adams-McGavin, Jamie McDonald, Michael Sifton, and William Egi produced strong results, bolstered by the depth of their research preparation. Both William and Devin were chosen as alternates to attend the Canadian Championships.

Two major tournaments filled up the remainder of the year, the first for which Mr. Kyle and Ryan Cole flew to Cape Town to attend the World Individual Debating and Public Speaking Championships at Bishops Diocesan College from March 30th to April 5, 2007.

Over 80 competitors qualified from their individual countries (Botswana, Canada, Cyprus, Germany, India, Lithuania, Pakistan, Republic of Korea, South Africa, United Kingdom, and the USA) to attend this most prestigious event. There, each student participated in four events: a 13 minute memorized Persuasive Speech, or a 7 minute humorous After-Dinner style speech, an (up to) 13 minute Interpretative Literature/Poetry reading, a World Style debate (on a variety of global issues), for which contestants had only 30 minutes to prepare, and finally, an Impromptu speech, with only 2 minutes in which to prepare for a 5 minute exposition of profound and humorous proportions! Each competed twice in every category before the finalists were announced. Students and coaches stayed in student residences during the school's March Break. With views of nearby Table Mountain and the lush foliage on the sprawling campus grounds so glorious, one didn't fuss much about the Spartan rooms and conservative breakfast and lunch meals! Each evening, the school went all out with dinner and cultural events; offering everything from street minstrels, marimba, drum, and numerous full-choir a cappella concerts, to lessons in gumboot, braaivleis dancing and an opportunity to support local craftsmen by purchasing their wares at an on-campus bazaar. Students relaxed each night before bed; club-dancing, with Bishop student DJs in the large tent parked on one of their 20-odd cricket and rugby pitches. Master Cole could most often be found extolling the virtues of an Andrean education to his dinner mates, comprised on many occasions of the entire all-female German delegation! After 3 days of preliminary competition, the school bussed everyone off campus for a day of sightseeing, up and down the coastline; allowing all participants to gondola up Table Mountain, to cable car to the top of Cape Point, and to see natural habitat baboons and penguins along the way. Again, the scenery was simply breathtaking, and the weather remained between 25 – 30 degrees Celsius throughout the week.

The next day, finals (in which Ryan performed his Interpretive reading again) were held at the school, then all were bussed to nearby Kirstenbosch Botanical Gardens for our last banquet and Grand Finals. The top two in each of the 5 categories (with two teams of two in debating) dazzled the knowledgeable crowd and highly esteemed panel of judges with their oratory skills, before (locally designed) awards were presented. One student to definitely watch out for (reminiscent of a young Robin Williams) was Joe Zych from the U.S.A. He won both the Impromptu and After-Dinner categories. No doubt, a large part of his charm could be attributed to the ever-present St. Andrew's debating tie he wore! Cypriate, Argyro Nicolaou (who also competed at SAC in the fall), won both the Persuasive and Interpretive Reading categories, with her emotional speech on "Mail-order Brides" nailing all of the accents and perfecting the pacing of the soldier's final death scene from "Captain Correlli's Violin". Caroline Chen, from the U.S.A., bested three Canadian boys in the debate final, in which the resolution was defined as limiting the copyright protection of pharmaceutical drug patents to only 5 years; down from 25.

After recognizing the top 3 individual award champions, the top 10 results were revealed. Despite not having any individual event winners, the Canadian team dominated overall, achieving 8 of the top 10 positions, with none of our 14 members placing lower than 37th. More remarkable, however, was our very own Ryan Cole's 9th place result, finishing ahead of all but one Ontarian; Genevieve Antono, from BHS, who placed 8th. Ryan's cumulative score was remarkably less than 2% behind the overall 2nd place finisher from Winnipeg. Shakir Raheem, from Collingwood, B.C., was the class of the field, repeating his previous year's achievement of winning it all.

We were so impressed with the tremendous hospitality offered by Bishops; from their Principal, Grant Nupen, to their teacher coordinators, Rob Moolman and Shirley Lamb, to the numerous student helpers who all gave up a precious week of their March break, extending on to the many tireless parents and support staff who all contributed to make this a week no one would ever forget.

Bishops (founded in 1849; student pop. 1260; 220 boarders on 56 hectares of pristine property) is clearly a remarkable school, but what moved us most was the charitable work they do for the less financially advantaged from around South Africa, including allowing access to grounds and classroom use for public school groups, and especially in how they included numerous students from the immensely poor Townships in this competition; as participants, observers, entertainers, and honorary speech givers.

We boarded the plane for our long journey home with heavy hearts, for having to leave this little slice of heaven, yet thoroughly inspired by our week abroad in this culturally rich, scenically magnificent, and ever-friendly setting of Cape Town, South Africa.

Our debate society perhaps saved the best for last, coming away from the final Fulford Tournament with an extremely rare trifecta, winning both Senior and Junior team events (for the first time in 21 years in either category), and our first ever, Coach's Cup. This cup goes to the school with the highest combined ranking from the three tournaments held over the year. Our Junior team of Adam Moryto and Bobby McDonald tied for first, and our cup winners for the Senior team were Stewart Powell and Ryan Cole. (Note: last year, our Senior team of Hamad Mirza and Dylan Baker were presented with a first place finish at the 2nd tournament, but were disappointed to be told the next day they had finished 2nd as the ranking had been incorrectly tabulated based on score, not on rank.)

Not to be forgotten were our own S.A.C. Rupert Ray Senior and Middle School Impromptu Speaking Competitions, won in the fall by Stewart Powell, and in spring by William Egi (a repeat of his 2006 victory).

Our extensive teams of debaters have worked very hard to reach this level of expertise and will continue to refine their skills next year, while being effective examples for their peers; as both leaders, and guides. Their new competition motto: "Take No Prisoners", while somewhat controversial, is indicative of the great fun, sense of camaraderie, and keen focus that the boys bring to this exciting art form.

Outreach

KENYA '06

Though active throughout the '06-'07 year, Outreach best distinguished itself on its Kenya trip during the summer of 2006. Organized chiefly by Mr. Mark Service, the trip to Kenya involved sending a large group of St. Andrew's students and faculty to Kenya to build a school and provide aid to a local community. Though the school was not completed on schedule, the St. Andrew's group nevertheless provided a solid foundation and saved local workers many weeks of hard work. Aside from the humanitarian aspect of the trip, students were given a chance to experience poverty first hand while immersing themselves in a new and distinct culture. Other highlights from the trip include climbing Mt. Kilimanjaro, being taken on a safari, white water rafting, and much more. At the trip's end, each student was left with an enormous respect of Kenyan culture as well as a lasting appreciation for everything, big or small, in their lives. Following the success of the Kenya trip, plans are already underway for a similar trip to Ecuador. Though the St. Andrew's group may never realize it, their contributions will never be forgotten and Kenyan students for generations to come will be palpable proof of the consequences of their actions.

DUKE OF ED.

The Duke of Edinburgh's Award program was active in the Bronze, Silver and Gold programs once again this year. The Corps Red Star program provided training in outdoor skills required for the annual Bronze level hike to Rattlesnake Point. Twentyseven students completed all the requirements and received their Bronze Award this year. Four Silver and eight Gold Awards were also presented. Expeditions included last summer's trip to Kenya, the February dog sledding trip to Algonquin Park, and the Silver hike in May on the Bruce Trail near Tobermory. In addition to completing the expedition component, students were required to meet objectives in fitness, community service, and skill development. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award is recognized in over 160 countries and is among the most respected international youth achievement awards.

This year also saw St. Andrew's lead the way as the host of the 2006 CIS Duke of Edinburgh Leaders Conference. Sixteen schools were represented at the half day program which focused on future goals and common program challenges. Special thanks to the staff from the Ontario office of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award who provided great support and assistance in organizing this event.

Photographers
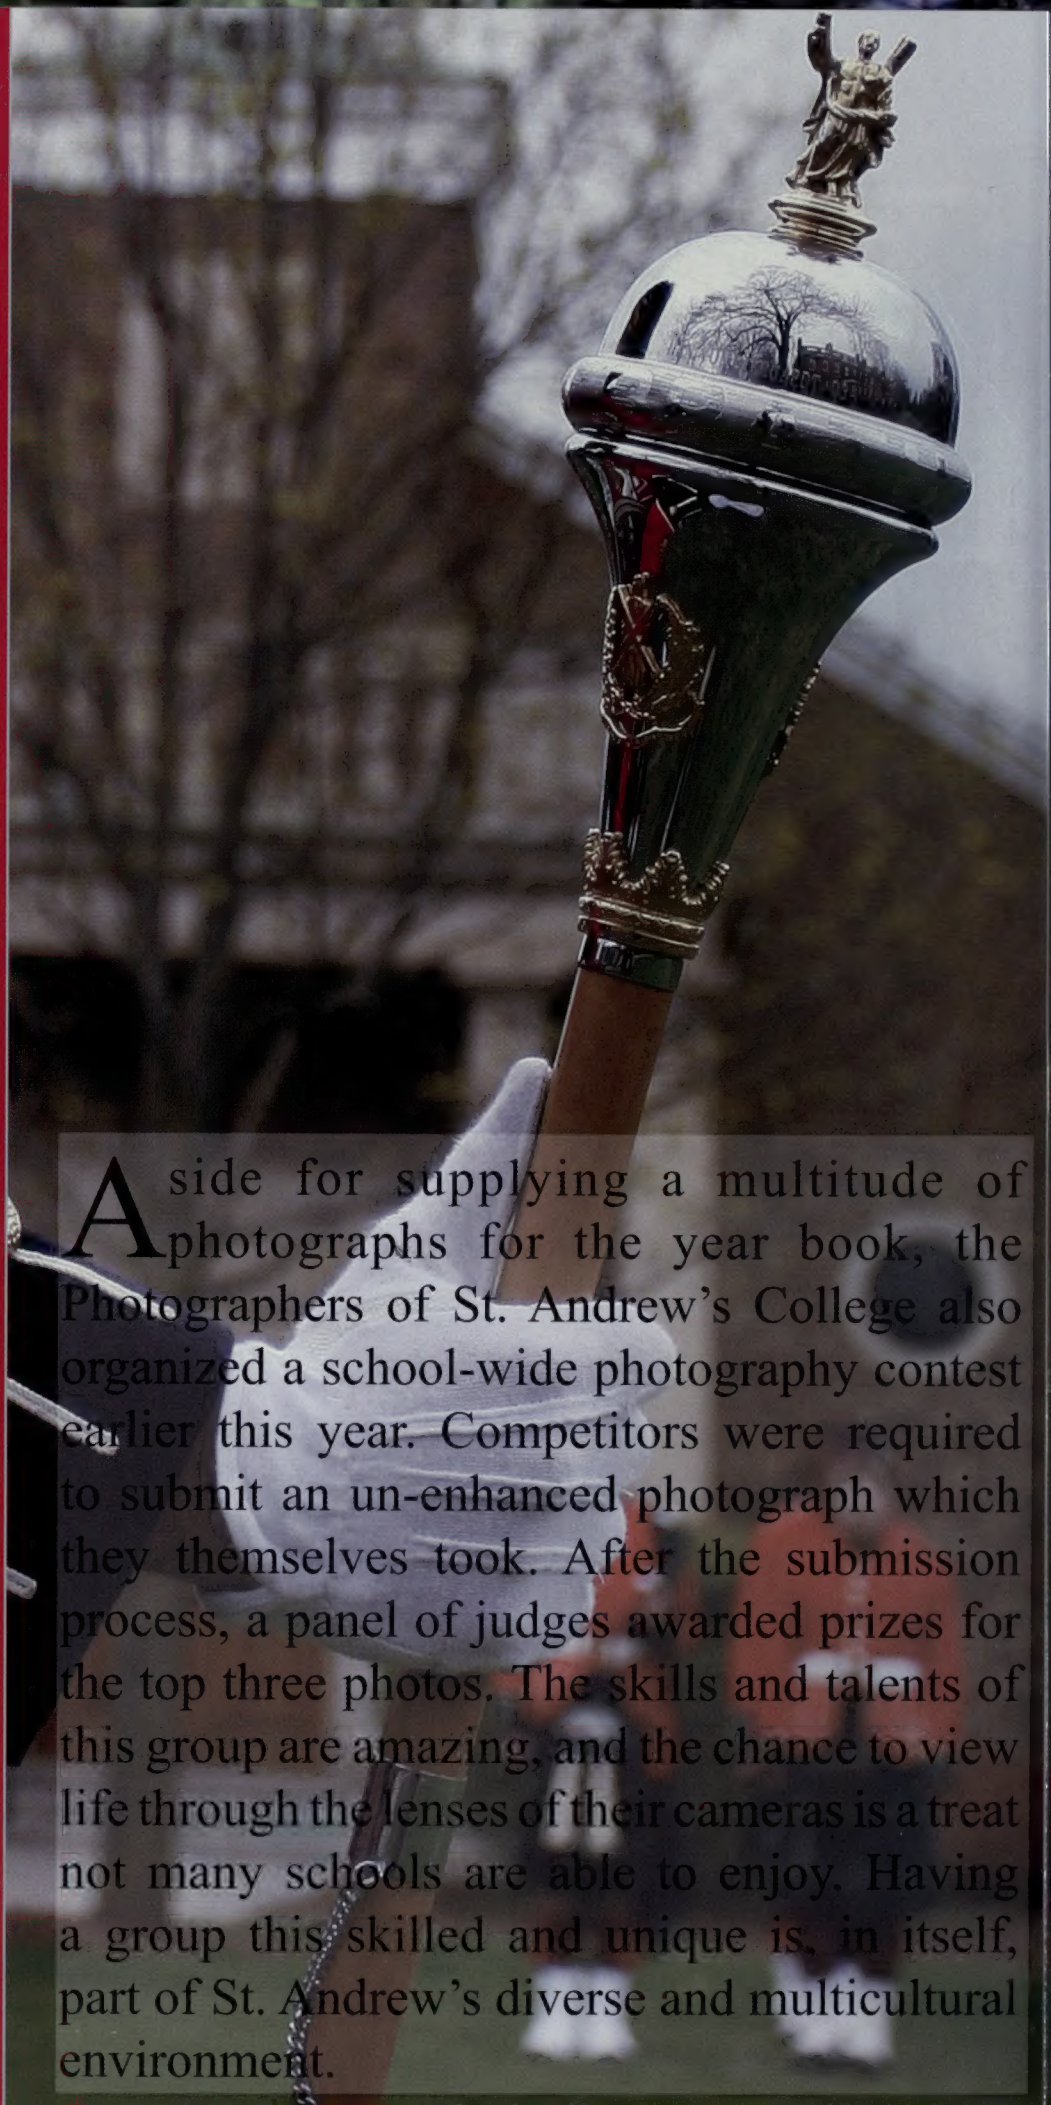
St. Andrew's College



Aside for supplying a multitude of photographs for the year book, the Photographers of St. Andrew's College also organized a school-wide photography contest earlier this year. Competitors were required to submit an un-enhanced photograph which they themselves took. After the submission process, a panel of judges awarded prizes for the top three photos. The skills and talents of this group are amazing, and the chance to view life through the lenses of their cameras is a treat not many schools are able to enjoy. Having a group this skilled and unique is, in itself, part of St. Andrew's diverse and multicultural environment.

Christian Fellowship

Once again, the Christian Fellowship has continued to fulfill its role of offering spiritual and moral guidance to students through the Christian Bible. Lead by co-heads Graham Hynds and Tyler King, and with the support of Mr. Marcel Te Bokkel, the group's members continue to grow. At their weekly meetings, the group discusses many major religious concepts in an attempt to better understand the Bible's overall message. As for the rest of the school, the Christian Fellowship has been a welcome change of pace in Chapel where skits pertaining to biblical parables are performed. As always, the Christian Fellowship remains open to all members of the Andrean community who find themselves interested or unsure of the Bible. As for the future, the club's growing popularity suggests that it will continue to expand while remaining a place for all those interested in the Christian religion to call home.

This year's Focus Festival was one of the best St. Andrew's College has ever seen! With new actors getting involved, focus became a spotlight for some of them to shine. For others, it put their name on the map for better plays to come. Mr. Scoular was unbelievable, organizing and directing many plays, and we look forward to see what he has in store for next year.

This year, the Grade 8 Graduating Class embarked on its annual 'grad trip' to scenic Niagara Falls. Here, the boys enjoyed the final days of their Middle School careers as friends before entering the Upper School and experiencing the wider variety of opportunities offered. During the trip, the boys were able to make some of their first enduring memories of the school with the promise that the best is yet to come for them next year. All the best next year, boys.

PRIEST DAY

Michael Hanson, Director of MiddleSchool
Prize Day Speech

Headmaster, Chairman of the Board, Members of the Board of Governors, Invited Guests, Faculty, Parents and last but not least students of the Middle School. It is my pleasure to welcome all of you to this year's Middle School Prize Day. I would like to thank Reverend Roffey for leading our last chapel service of the school year and for all of his work to ensure that our mornings in chapel sent us off for the day with a most meaningful message.

281 days. This is the number of days that this group of Middle School students have been together as a community. A community whose members are closer than most communities – they are part of a family – The Andrean Family. In many respects, today is a celebration of families. Today, students, parents, siblings and teachers come together to celebrate a year of physical, emotional and academic growth. In 24 hours, I will be where your parents are now seated and watching my son graduate from grade 12 after having spent 7 years as a student at St. Andrews. I watched as St. Andrew's became an extended family for both my sons – a home away from home that offered them support, encouragement and opportunities. I know that the pride and affection that you have shown for this special place in the short time that you have been here will grow even deeper in years to come.

For the class of 2011, our Middle School graduates today, we know that you are ready to move on and we respect your need to reach for new challenges. I know you look forward to the many opportunities that you will have in the Upper School. However, I continue to be amazed at the number of students who in their grade 11 year volunteer to return to Macdonald House and the Middle School as House Captains. They look forward to the chance to be big brothers to the younger students and perhaps also relive some of their middle school experiences albeit vicariously. I am also touched by the emotion that an event such as the carol service brings out in our graduating grade 12 students when they realize that it will be their final carol service as students of St. Andrews. It is these yearly events that will be remembered with fondness and pride even though they seem very routine now. It is this sense of belonging to the Andrean family that brings our alumni back to the school for homecomings, reunions, weddings, christening and funerals. It is not uncommon for several generations of the same family to attend St. Andrews and for fathers to want their sons to share some of the same experiences they had here. Some enduring family names like Dunlap and Sifton have even become part of the physical structure of the school.
While today is a day where we honour a number of students who have experienced excellence in their academics it is certainly a day where each of us should take a moment to reflect on the year that has passed by all too quickly. What was your happiest day? What was your saddest day? What are you most proud of? What are you least proud of? What would you do differently if you could turn back time?

Certainly as a community, there were tremendous highlights. My experience would suggest that the Homecoming games and the many festivities around that day were a great memory from the beginning of the year. I certainly heard about the excitement surrounding the International Public Speaking Contest. I am sure the SAC community welcomed,with open arms, our many guests from around the globe. The chill of November took the Middle School community Beyond the Gates to Lake St. George Field Centre, Haliburton Forest and Calgary, Alberta, and despite the groans of having to get their voices in tune at early morning practices, the carol service is always one of the highlights of the first term. The new year brought the school together for the MacPherson Friday night hockey game in an overwhelming show of SAC pride The month of February saw the boys partake in a dance and coffee house with some of our sister schools from the Toronto area. After the March break, we turned our attention to the cadet program, the Focus Festival of the Arts, examinations and finally our class celebrations last Thursday and Friday. As well as these events, I would be remiss in not mentioning the many successes in the classrooms where most of our students challenged themselves to produce their best possible work. As usual the co-curricular program demanded much time from the boys but the results in athletics, debate, drama, music and visual arts were well worth the effort. Special mention should be made of our Under 14 soccer, squash and rugby teams which all secured CISAA championships during the past year.

I do not feel that any Middle School ceremony would be complete without recognizing some of the most incredible young men here today; namely our residential students from Macdonald House who exhibit maturity and independence far beyond their years. For these boys, St. Andrew's has been their primary residence for the past 8 months. A special thanks to all of our friends from around the world who add so much to the Andrean community and also to Mr. Galajda, Mr. Kowaltschuk, Ms. Derwin, Mr. Day and Ms. Weir for their efforts to turn this "home away from home" into a safe and enjoyable environment for our Mac House boys.

Recently Mr. Ryan spoke to the Middle School in chapel and he challenged them to think about thanking people more often. In order to be a good role model, I need to take this opportunity to thank many people. I will never be able to express my gratitude of how welcoming everyone was when I came back to St. Andrew's after the March break. This has been one of the nicest feelings that I have ever experienced. The Middle School faculty, who day in and day out, work with the students to make this place such a unique institution. Barb Cain, you are a tremendous support for faculty, staff, parents and students. I watch you get interrupted constantly, usually by me, while you are working but always have a smile on your face and time to listen while meeting the needs of all these people. Michael Ruscitti for having to fill in during my absence. I cannot imagine how difficult it was to step in with no notice. I am sorry that we never did get a chance to work more closely together. Crescent School is getting an innovative and creative leader who will undoubtedly raise the bar there. Finally a heartfelt thanks to our Chairman of the Board, Mr. Jeff Chisholm and our Headmaster, Ted Staunton for believing in the Middle School concept and allowing this program to help these students to develop into the all round man. Your support on many fronts has been unwavering and greatly appreciated.
In closing and as a tribute to our grade 8 class, I'll leave you to reflect upon an excerpt from "Oh, the Places You'll Go" by the one and only Dr. Seuss: Congratulations!

US PRIZE DAY SPEECH JUNE 2007

Mr. Chairman; Members of the Board of Directors; Upper School Faculty; Honoured Guests; Parents; Members of the 2007 Graduating Class; Boys of the Upper School; It is a privilege for me to open the 2007 Prize Day Ceremonies. In light of the heat and the size of this year's graduating class, I will keep my remarks brief. It is much more important for you to hear about the outstanding achievements of our students over the course of this successful year.

I am certain that you will agree with me when I say that the most important thing in life is the safety and security of our children. As a residential school, we think about this each and every day. A traumatic injury occurred to a girl who is a member of the wider Andrean community at an S.A.C. dance in April. Her recovery has been miraculous, due primarily to her strength of character. I contacted the family prior to this event and asked if I could pay tribute to her courage. Veronica Tiller is here today to witness her brother, Wes' graduation.

At the time of the accident, an SAC faculty member who was chaperoning the dance showed incredible judgement, patience and fortitude in stabilizing Veronica immediately after the incident and before the YRES arrived. In the opinion of her doctors, this act by Fraser Cowell prevented irreparable damage. The theme of this school year is courage – "that quality of mind or spirit enabling one to meet danger with fearlessness". Veronica and Fraser, would you please come forward to receive Colonel Tilston Awards, the school's award for "courage under fire".

Today, four pillars of the Andrean Community retire. In St. Andrew's history only 15 men have served the school as a member of the Board of Directors for 25 years or more. Today, marks the final Prize Day as a director for Mr. David Dunlap, Class of 1956, who has served with distinction for 27 years including 11 years as Chairman of the SAC Foundation. Thank you David.

We have honoured the other three who have been key components of the life of the school at a special reception in the Gallery two weeks ago. Head Librarian Stephen Treasure, Head Nurse Carol Rose-Kudelka and Food Services Manager Mike Hillick collectively have devoted 72 years to the college. Please join me in wishing them a very happy retirement.

Once again, our graduating class have distinguished themselves in every facet of school life. I congratulate this year's Prefects under the leadership of Head Prefect Adel Ratansi. Those faculty members who work closely with them remark that this group have been the most effective student leaders for many years.

Academically, the class has excelled. The latest report from the University Counselling Office indicates that they have won over US $650,000 in scholarships to US colleges and $353,000 to Canadian Universities. Some highlights – Entrance scholarships of $10,000 or more have been won by Tyler King, Bryan Lin, Johnny Ng, Jang Jik Lee, and Dustin Tsap to Ryerson, Univ. of Toronto, Queen's Univ. and the Univ. of Waterloo respectively. Scott Genin and Vladie Lokshin have won prestigious Excellence Scholarships to Queen's. Scott Giroux and Greg VandeMark have won major admission scholarships to the Univ. of Ottawa. John Jinho Kim and Justin Oh head off to Carnegie Mellon University with the Rene Descartes, and Engineering International Student Scholarships in their knapsacks. Adam Yates has won three scholarships to Queen's – an Entrance Scholarship, a Residence Entrance Award, and a renewable Entrance Scholarship.

Jon Thompson has won an $80,000 US scholarship over 4 years to Cornell and Drexel University, Mercyhurst College, Rochester Institute of Technology, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute have attracted Kyle Bergman, Tyson Geick, Michael Kiekebelt, and Christian Morissette, respectively with large financial packages. Would these have anything to do with Lacrosse and hockey?

I applaud the accomplishments this school year of our athletic teams. Conference of Independent Schools Athletic Association Champions at the Varsity level in Hockey, Squash, Alpine Skiing, Rugby and Lacrosse. The Varsity Lacrosse team won the Ontario Championships in a lopsided win on home turf; Varsity Hockey won the triple crown, MacPherson, CIS and Mid-West Prep League championships and Varsity Rugby won a thrilling CAIS National Tournament at the start of their season.
Collectively, these victories kept student morale high throughout the year. Congratulations to the coaches, captains and players for this fantastic athletic record.

I am delighted with the progress of our debaters and public speakers. If there is a more important life skill, I would like to hear of it. At this year's IISPS Competition hosted by St. Andrew's, Ryan Cole earned the right to compete at the World Championships held at Bishops Diocesan College in Capetown, SA. Stewart Powell and Radissen Ramoutar narrowly missed the cut to compete. Out of 80 competitors, Ryan finished 9th. The high calibre IISPS competition must have motivated our public speakers and debaters, because they followed up later in the year by winning the Junior and Senior Fulford Cup and the Coaches Award for top school out of 21 CIS schools.

Under the direction of our Director of Music, Ms. Sandi Chasson and Director of Piping and Major Brian McCue, our diverse Music program has flourished. SAC was, once again, the host school of the CISMF at Roy Thompson Hall – 58 of our boys thrilled the huge audience with their skill in piping, drumming, jazz, brass and strings.
With the music program's growth in prominence, we must find a way to build them a new music facility so that the boys can continue to progress.
Our actors and artists have also had a banner year. Wait until you see the work displayed in The Gallery by the Headmaster's Art Prize winners.

William Scoular's production of "Cabaret" was a blockbuster hit; better, in my opinion, than the version in London; and what great acting in Waiting for Godot by Colin Murphy, Greg Vandemark, and Will Samson-Doel.

The school would not run as smoothly as it does without the dedication of many groups; Thank you to the Faculty and Administrative Staff for their tireless work on behalf of the boys. Thank you to the Ladies Guild Executive under the capable leadership of Cathy Tait. The accomplishments this year of this dedicated group were numerous, all in aid of the boys. Their contribution of $100,000 to Campus Master Plan II projects has helped "kick start" the next phase of facility improvements. Thank you to the Maintenance, Grounds, Food Service, and Housekeeping Departments for their commitment to excellence.

Thank you to the Leadership Team for your support and counsel.

Mr. Ted Staunton, Headmaster.
